Cyclone Dips Into Oklahoma

Freezing Rain, Sleet and Snow Move Into Kansas And Missouri

STILLWATER, Okla., Feb. —(AP)—A small tornado dipped into central Stillwater here tonight and continued northeast to destroy a farmhouse two miles from town.

The police department estimated damage at "several thousands," but there were no reports of deaths or injuries.

Jack Shellhammer, owner of the farm home, was pinned in the corner of one room with his seven-year old daughter when the twister tore the house from its foundation and crashed it against a tree.

Mrs. Shellhammer had to use a crowbar to free them.

Shellhammer said his barn was completely destroyed and "the chicken coop was blown away and we haven't found it."

Heavy Rain Came First

The tornado hit shortly after 8 p. m.

It dipped down first just west of the courthouse in the center of town and continued northeast.

It smashed half a dozen plate glass windows in Main street stores, destroyed parts of roofs, ripped the tops from trees in its path. It lifted on the other side of the Missouri - Kansas - Oklahoma bus station.

The twister tore two pecan trees at the home of Henry P. Iba, basketball coach at Oklahoma A & M college here.

Just before the storm, the temperature plunged 27 degrees in less than one hour—by unofficial reading—as the cold front moved in from Kansas.

At 7:30 p. m. the mercury stood at 63 degrees, and it was down to 36 at 8:30.

A heavy rain came just before the twister.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 12—(AP)—Freezing rain, sleet and snow moved into Kansas and Missouri today and was expected to blanket all of the area by late Sunday.

Snow was falling in western and north central Kansas tonight and the weather bureau warned that blizzard conditions would develop at times in that area tomorrow with three to six inches of snow.

The belt of freezing rain had reached Chanute in southeastern Kansas tonight, extending northeastward through Kansas City and Chillicothe, Mo.

Sleet Some Places

Between the freezing rain and snow, sleet was falling tonight, from Salina and Topeka in Kansas to St. Joseph in northwestern Missouri.

As the cold front advances southeastward severe glazing conditions are expected over eastern Kansas and much of Missouri by late Sunday, the weather bureau said.

Temperatures Sunday are expected to range from 5 to 10 above in northwestern Kansas to 15 to 20 in the southeast, and in Missouri from 14 in the northwest to 35 in the southeast.

By The Associated Press

The Arctic hurled a fresh blast of icy winds and snow at the northern plains states Saturday, stalling efforts to dig out the area from 43 days of winter blows.

The new storm enveloped Montana and most of Wyoming before daybreak, then slammed deeply into northern Colorado. It reached also into North and South Dakota and Nebraska.

The blizzard dropped new snow ranging from three to eight inches on Montana, most of Wyoming and northern Colorado.

It prompted renewed relief activities in the southwest part of North Dakota. The army included the state in the official snow disaster area after an appeal by Governor Fred G. Aandahl.

Removal Operations Stop

Virtually all snow removal operations had to be halted in South Dakota, where winds up to 45 miles an hour in the western sector were accompanied by blowing snow. The winds were expected to abate Sunday, with temperatures dropping to 15 below zero. Most roads east of the Missouri river remained open, but those in the Black Hills were blocked.

The cold—sub-zero at midday in the blizzard belt—reached in milder form into the northwest and northern California, ending a flood threat to 2,000 persons trapped by deep snows in a canyon of the Sierras.

In Idaho, the Union Pacific railroad reported five trains stopped because of deep drifts blocking the main line at Borah, six miles west of American Falls.

Blackwater Up, Close Part Highway 127

Water which raised Blackwater from the thaw the past few days was increased by the rain Saturday night to such an extent that highway 127 between LaMonte and Sweet Springs had to be closed when water went over the road.

Traffic from Sweet Springs detoured to highway 13 to Warrensburg to highway 50 to get to Sedalia.

Scout Crusade To Strengthen Arm of Liberty

NEW YORK, Feb. 12—(AP)—Two hundred Boy Scouts stood in the shadow of the statue of Liberty today and launched a two-year "crusade to strengthen the arm of liberty."

The ceremonies marked the end of the Scouts' week-long 39th anniversary celebration.

Twelve Eagle Scouts, representing the 12 Scout regions, took part in a torch-lighting ceremony with radio singer Hollace Shaw and Amory Houghton, national president of Scouts.

Arthur A. Schuck, chief scout executive, said the object of the crusade was to enrich the scouting program in all its phases "so that more boys will want to be scouts."

Among the 12 Eagle Scouts was Joseph L. Cox, Trenton, Mo.

Henry County Representative To Offer Bill

Setting Minimum Wage for Most Workers at 75 Cents

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 12—(AP)—Employes of all but agricultural, seasonal, interstate and some municipal industries would get a minimum of 75 cents an hour in Missouri under a bill scheduled to be offered in the state legislature next week.

Rep. Delton L. Houtchens (D) of Henry county said he would offer the measure Tuesday because "I am very anxious to see what may be the reaction (of labor and management)."

For the affected intrastate workers, Houtchens' bill would prescribe a minimum wage of 75 cents an hour for up to 40 hours a week and time and a half for hours in excess.

He would exempt agricultural workers and those engaged in interstate commerce. The latter are governed by federal minimum wage acts, now setting a 40 cents an hour minimum. But President Truman has recommended that Congress up the minimum to 75 cents.

Some Exemptions

Houtchens' bill describes seasonal workers, also exempted, as employes in limestone and rock quarries, sawmills, ready mixed concrete companies "and other industries which shall from time to time be determined x x x to be seasonal industries."

He leaves the determination up to an administrater who would get $7,500 a year.

Houtchens also exempts employes of newspapers with circulations of less than 4,000 and municipal employes of cities smaller than the third class.

An employer to be affected by the proposed law would have to hire eight or more workers for at least one day in a week at least ten weeks in the year.

'We Can Win In 1950' Was GOP Battlecry

At Lincoln Day Dinner; Democrats Observed Day Too

By The Associated Press

Republican orators sounded the battlecry: "We can win in 1950" in Lincoln Day gatherings Saturday from coast to coast.

The 140th anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's birth furnished party leaders an opportunity to counsel cheerfulness in adversity, learning from defeat, and determination to drive ahead to victory.

Not all the Lincoln's birthday celebrations were Republican.

President Truman stood at attention at the impressive Lincoln memorial in Washington as two of his aides laid a wreath of salmon-pink gladioli at the base of the great emancipator's statue. The Marine band played patriotic airs.

And, in a speech at Norwalk, Conn., Secretary of Air Symington cited a speech by Lincoln upholding adequate national defense as an inevitable part of the discipline of the nation.

Looking Ahead

Most of the Republicans' speeches pointed toward the congressional elections of 1950 and the presidential contest coming up in 1952.

House Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts, gibed at the Truman administration as a "spend-thrift government which closed its mind and heart to the real, practical needs of the people."

Republican National Chairman Hugh D. Scott, Jr., declared there can be no real cure for the nation's ills "until the Truman administration, this abscessed tooth in the body politic, is yanked out."

Senator Wherry of Nebraska, the Republican floor leader, called on the G.O.P. to expose what he called "the shameful results" of U. S. foreign policy, which he asserted had handed over Asia to Communism.

Martin spoke at Lock Haven, Pa.; Scott at Bridgeport, Conn., and Wherry at Chicago.

Martin's Comment

Martin, who was speaker of the House last session, said the Republican party is "the only vehicle remaining today for the persistent, vigorous, nationwide defense of fundamental Americanism."

He predicted:

"If the present administration is not checked in its run-away spending plans, the tax reduction bill passed by your Republican 80th Congress will go down in history as the last tax reduction bill ever passed by Congress in the 20th century!"

Dewey On State Issues

New York's Governor Thomas E. Dewey, unsuccessful candidate for the presidency last year, spoke at New York City to the same gathering addressed by Senator Schoeppel.

Dewey confined himself principally to state issues. He said New York should have "the courage and honesty" to use pay-as-you-go financing and "not rob our children of their birthright." He said he agreed with people who complain that government costs too much, adding dryly: "All services cost too much because we have to pay for them in 50-cent Democratic dollars."

Ten Per Cent Unemployed

NEW YORK, Feb. 12—(AP)—Unemployment among railroad workers passed the 100,000 mark this week, reports from rail sources showed tonight.

This is around ten per cent of the total working force in the industry, and is sharply higher than levels of idleness at the same time a year ago.

Part of it is seasonal and temporary. Nearly all of it is related to a decline in business. Some railroad circles see it as added evidence of a trend toward prewar business patterns.

Carloadings, a sensitive barometer of revenue freight traffic, are running around nine per cent below their 1948 rate.

Some leaders of a CIO union of non-operating employes have contended the layoffs were part of a plot to circumvent the union's demand for a 40-hour week at 48-hour pay. They planned to discuss the matter with congressmen at Washington Monday.

Despite the rise in unemployment, the total number of employes of the railroads remains higher than the average for any pre-war year since around 1930.

Women's Knees Emerging From Two-Year Retirement

By Florence Mills

PARIS, Feb. 12—(AP)—Three important features have emerged from the Paris fashion shows which are likely to influence women's clothes this year.

They are:

1. The introduction of flying overskirts and the continuance of the super-narrow skirt.

2. The extensive use of the stole.

3. The shortening of skirts.

Flying overskirts comprise separate, pleated, flared or gathered panels attached to a tight waistband and set over a narrow "drainpipe" skirt. They are what Christian Dior calls "eye foolers, because they look like ordinary full skirts until the wearer twirls around and show the narrow skirt beneath.

Stoles are put on both day and evening wear, French designers show them sprouting from skirt sideseams, then entwining the figure and dangling loose from the waist or slung over one shoulder.

Women's knees seem to be gradually emerging from their two-year retirement. Dior, who first imposed the "new look" length in '47, has pushed many hemlines up to two inches below the knees. Other designers are more conservative and average some 13 to 14 inches from the ground.

Bodices are either molded to the midriff or shirtwaist, with a tendency to be blown out and pouched at the back.

Legends Built Around Storm Incidents and not Statistics

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 12—(AP)—The legend which will build itself around the winter will come of incidents rather than statistics.

A Grand Island, Neb., salesman spent two nights and a day in a haystack while a blizzard raged about him. "I was never afraid," he told interviewers from his hospital bed later. "I used to be afraid of many things, but that was before I knew the Silent Companion. My Silent Companion was with me."

A Gordon, Neb., oil transport driver, who knew the area like a book got stalled on the highway. Days later his frozen body was found face down in snow near a haystack where he might have had shelter.

Lived On Field Corn

A snow-stalled couple near Scottsbluff spent three days in their car, subsisting on field corn.

Food-short migrant Indians at Gordon, Neb., with only their tents for shelter, used axes to hack away flesh from livestock frozen to death on the range.

In Morrill county, an agricultural observer submitted his report to superiors in Lincoln, Neb. His report for the week: "Highways were closed Saturday and Sunday, opened Monday, closed Tuesday, opened Wednesday, closed Thursday and opened again Friday."

Bulldozer Raced Stork

A bulldozer named "Henriette" engaged in a race with a stork, took 48 hours to reach a snowbound expectant mother, near Sargent, Neb. "I'm sure glad to see you, the woman assured the misinformed crewmen, "but I'm not due until March 3."

At North Platte, a farmer with an acute sense of obligation to his government took a day and a half to cover 14 miles into town—to pay his income tax.

Even for the luckiest of rural Nebraskans, the winter has been one of boredom, frustration and hard work.

Teacher, Pupils Are Rescued

OMAHA, Feb. 12—(AP)—A rural school teacher and her 13 pupils, snowbound on a western Nebraska ranch since Jan. 19, have been liberated.

Maj. Gen. Lewis A. Pick, commander of operation snowbound, told the story today to prove that "the hardy pioneer spirit still lives."

A school bus transporting teacher and pupils stalled in a drift Jan. 19 and the passengers took refuge at the Gordon Creek Hereford ranch south of Gordon, Neb.

An operation snowbound crew opened a route into the ranch yesterday and found that the teacher, Celia Sandoz, had been holding her classes as usual.

Miss Sandoz said school will resume Monday—in the schoolhouse.

N. Y. Stock Exchange To Advertise

NEW YORK, Feb. 12—(AP)—The New York Stock Exchange plans to embark on a national advertising campaign in the near future designed to create more interest in listed stocks.

Emil Schram, president, announced this today in his annual report for 1948.

"It is a disturbing fact" Schram said in his report to members of the Exchange, "that under the conditions of our postwar economy, the ownership of shares in industry does not seem to have the attractiveness to most Americans that it should have. x x x

"We believe the time is here to interest millions of people in the satisfactions inherent in owning a part of industry and we hope to stimulate this kind of thinking in a series of advertisements about to appear in national magazines and newspapers.

More Important Purpose

"While these advertisements are directly beneficial to member firms of the Exchange and to its floor members, they serve a more important purpose. They will also provide a form of rearmament against trends that will otherwise lead to the nationalization of industry.

Schram said the Exchange suffered another financial loss in 1948. Revenues totaled $6,890,140, a decline of $171,889 from the previous year. Consolidated net loss after depreciation, tax carrybacks and other adjustments, was $435,597. In 1947 the consolidated loss after such items was $116,171.

Non-Communist Oath Bill Drafted

LITTLE ROCK, Feb. 12—(AP)—A bill requiring both students and teachers at state-supported colleges to sign non-Communist oaths will be introduced in the Arkansas Senate next week.

Senator A. M. Shirey Jr. of Lewisville said:

"If this bill becomes law, you will see a lot of resignations handed in."

Final draft of the bill was to be prepared over the weekend by Shirey and Senators Ellis Fagan of Little Rock, Grover Carnes of Stuttgart and Lawrence Blackwell of Pine Bluff.

Inquiring Into What Killed Barnum Dog

Officers Believe Ordinarily it Would Have Sounded Alarm

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barnum, 1901 East Broadway, are going to Kansas City this morning to see Mr. Barnum's brother, Dr. K. R. Barnum, who is flying in from California, after attending the funeral of his son, Harold Barnum, who was burned to death when fire destroyed his home, 613 Carnation avenue, Corona del Mar, Calif., Monday.

The dead man was burned beyond recognition. Identification was made by his widow, Charlotte Barnum, who was in Riverside when the tragedy occurred. She made the identification through jewelry, clothing and unique dental work.

Funeral services were held Thursday.

Mystery In Dog's Death

Interest has been centered in Barnum's dog, which could not be found at once, and why it had not sounded an alarm. A copy of a Balboa newspaper carried the following story a couple of days after the fire:

"Final chapter of the investigation into the death of Harold L. Barnum who died in a tragic fire in his home Monday morning was reported this morning.

"The body of the Barnum dog, a white boxer named Dana, was found last night by Newport Beach fire investigators. The dog had been the object of a two day search following the finding of his master's body in the fiery ruins of the family home at 613 Carnation avenue, Corona del Mar.

"Police and coroner's office spokesmen said that the dog's whereabouts might aid in determining the fire's origin because of known canine reactions in case of smoke and fire.

"Firemen poked through the debris of the publisher's home until 8:00 o'clock yesterday before finding the boxer's body under the house. The dog's remains were not burned as was his masters and an examination is scheduled for today to determine what killed the dog before he could sound an alarm in the early morning blaze, Fire Chief Frank Crocker stated."

Pope Asks for United Prayers

VATICAN CITY, Feb. 12—(AP)—Pope Pius XII appealed to Roman Catholics today for united prayers April 3 to remove world evils he said were specially virulent "in those countries where a conspiracy has been formed against the Lord and against his Christ."

The Vatican soon afterward announced excommunication of "all those who dared raise their hands" against Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, tried him or sentenced him. It threatened the same penalty for "all those who in the future should become involved in the same crimes."

The Pope himself did not name any nation or any international group in his denunciation of world evils. The Vatican announcement, however, left no doubt he was referring to Communism and to the Communist-ruled states behind the iron curtain. A Hungarian people's court sentenced Cardinal Mindszenty Tuesday to life imprisonment on a charge of treason.

Hardwareman Delivered the Goods, But Why

HETTINGER, N. D., Feb. 12—(AP)—You've got to hand it to Lyle Markegard, local hardwareman. He delivered the goods.

It was 20 below zero last Wednesday when he took off to make a delivery to a farmer customer 20 miles away. He got to the customer's home all right and delivered the order, but the weather was so bad, he stayed overnight before trying the return trip.

All day Thursday he bucked snow drifts and traveled only four miles. He spent the night at another farmer's home. He managed to get back home yesterday.

The goods?

A deep freezer.

News Briefs

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12—(AP)—A plan to wrap the United States and Alaska in a radar network against sudden air attacks advanced in Congress today.

And a similar warning screen across the whole North American Arctic frontier is in the minds of Canadian and United States officials.

This came to light as Canada's Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent met for the first time with President Truman.

As the two men conferred, a House armed services subcommittee approved plans for a $161,000,000 radar interceptor system tied in with fighter plane and antiaircraft defense for this country. It would authorize outpost stations also. They were not designated.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12—(AP)—The Democratic Congress begins its seventh week Monday amid indications that it may pigeonhole part of President Truman's legislative program.

Prices declines appeared about to cut the ground from under Mr. Truman's request for standby price-wage controls and add to arguments against the imposition of $4,000,000,000 (B) in new taxes, which he urges.

His proposal for governmental authority to build steel plants—under heavy Republican attack—also seems likely to be undermined if any further drop occurs in business indices.

For other reasons, Democratic lawmakers also were putting in the doubtful category Mr. Truman's request for universal military training and for congressional approval of the proposed St. Lawrence seaway.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12—(AP)—Official Washington is about convinced that what western nations need now is more arms and cordinated military training rather than more soldiers.

This trend in thinking became evident today in the light of discussions in authoritative quarters.

As a result, there is no apparent disposition here to press the countries of western Europe to build up a large number of divisions this year. Rather, they will be encouraged to provide their present forces with the best equipment and training possible under the circumstances.

Disapproval of Hungarian Trial

Congressman George H. Cristopher, from Missouri's sixth district, which includes Pettis county, registered disapproval to the recent trial of Cardinal Mindszenty, in Hungary, in the House of Representatives, in these words:

"Mr. Speaker:

"Gentlemen of the House:

"I rise to register my personal disapproval and indignation at the sham trial and conviction of Cardinal Mindszenty of Hungary. He is a true man of God, a devout Christian whose only crime has been to preach the religion of Jesus Christ and he faces life imprisonment only because the tenets of Christianity are incompatible with Communism. I wish to publicly state that in my opinion his imprisonment will be an indelible blot on the record of his country and a challenge to Christians everywhere."

AFL Considering Putting State Legislators on Payroll

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12—(AP)—The AFL is considering putting state legislators on its payroll so labor sympathizers can afford the lawmaking jobs.

This would be part of an extremely broad plunge into national political affairs about to be launched by Labor's League for Political Education, the American Federation of Labor's political arm.

Heartened by its success in helping elect President Truman last fall, the League is stepping up its national activities and planning extensive campaigns on state and local levels.

Details were worked out at the AFL Executive Council's recent midwinter session at Miami, Fla.

Could Have Greater Voice

League leaders decided that union members or people sympathetic with labor's aims could have a greater voice, or even control, in state legislatures if more such persons could be induced to run for office.

It was recognized, however, that the pay for state legislators is so low in most states that labor people often cannot afford to run for office or take time out from regular jobs for lawmaking.

Thus, it was proposed and virtually decided that the League will help elect and thereafter augment the salaries of legislators endorsed by labor where they have insufficient funds of their own to get by.

Ask Recall U. S. Envoy To Hungary

Accuse Truman and Sec'y Acheson Of Taking Part in War of Slander

By Endre Marton

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Feb. 12—(AP)—Hungary announced tonight she has asked the United States to recall U. S. Minister Selden Chapin and to consider withdrawing an assistant military attache.

Foreign Minister Laszo Rajk accused President Truman, Secretary of State Acheson and British Foreign Secretary Bevin in a statement of taking part in a "war of slander against Hungary."

Authoritative quarters said, however, that a break in diplomatic relations is not intended.

"Some other representative of the United States will be welcomed here," one said, "but we do not want Mr. Chapin to remain."

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Feb. 12 (AP)—The Hungarian foreign office asked the United States tonight to consider recalling two officers of the American military attache's staff here before the Hungarian government requests their removal.

The foreign office identified the American officers as Lt. Col. Peter C. Kopczak and Lt. Col. John P. Merrill.

A Hungarian note responding to a protest from the U. S. legation concerning the two officers accused them of "clumsy behavior" on the night of Feb. 4 in the country town of Szeged.

The note accused them of being intoxicated, refusing to pay a garage bill and quoted Kopczak as saying they had gone to the Hungarian-Yugoslav border to make photos of "eventual military objects" and to find out whether any military preparations were made.

Ivan Boldizsar, under secretary of state, said the recall of Chapin was asked in connection with the activities of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Roman Catholic primate convicted Tuesday on charges of treason, espionage and illegal money dealings.

Home For Consulation

(The U. S. state department announced Chapin will be ordered home "for consultation." The department press officer, Michael McDermott, said the United States "reserved its position" in respect to his status. Hungary previously expelled two members of Chapin's staff on charges that they were engaged in spying and smuggling men out of the country. The U. S. responded by expelling a Hungarian diplomat, First Secretary John G. Florian of the Hungarian legation.)

The Hungarian Foreign Ministry suggested that the U. S. legation "consider the necessity of removing" Lt. Col. Peter Kopcsak, who is attached to the American military attache's staff, "before the Hungarian government will request them to do so."

Charged Abuse Of Privileges

The note charged abuse of diplomatic privileges.

It said Kopcask and another American officer, Lt. Col. John Merrill, behaved clumsily on a trip last week to the country town of Szeged and the Yugoslav border.

The foreign ministry charged they left Szeged "rather intoxicated," failed to pay a garage bill and created an incident when a Hungarian sentry stopped them at the Yugoslav border.

(Hungary previously announced the arrest of a customs officer and some others in connection with its spy charges against the two American diplomats expelled, second Secretary Stephen A. Koczak and third Secretary Robin E. Steussy).

Cannot Be Influenced

Rajk declared in a statement today that "certain responsible factors of some foreign powers" aided in the activities of Cardinal Mindszentry and that the trail showed one of these was the American minister. Boldizzar referred to this statement in announcing the request for Chapin's recall.

The foreign minister said western powers cannot influence the Hungarian government in the Mindszenty affair and "we will face the discussion of the case before the United Nations."

The Weather

Sleet and snow north, with strong northerly winds and much colder; diminishing light snow in north Sunday night; Monday cloudy and cold; glazing conditions likely to be moderate to severe over most of state Sunday; high temperatures Sunday 15 to 20 in north.

Temperature midnight Friday, 44 degrees above zero; 7:00 a. m. Saturday, 52 degrees; midnight Saturday, 31 degrees.

Thought For Today

As to people saying a few idle words about us, we must not mind that any more than the old church steeple minds the rooks cawing about it—Eliot.

The Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

by Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13—GOP Congressman Dewey Short of Missouri gave a star studded delegation of Pentagon generals the bawling out of their lives at a secret session of the House armed services committee the other day. The issue under debate was not the 70-group Air Force, but an increase of both ground and air officers.

Before the razor tongued Missourian finished his lecture, the generals seemed only too happy to settle for a compromise increase of 3,500 army officers and 7,500 in the Air Corps, instead of 21,000 new officers as requested.

"The trouble with you fellows is that you are always clamoring for more rank, more stars and more pay," bluntly asserted Short. "Your only interest in peacetime is pay and rank."

"I'm a strong supporter of 70 air groups, but what we need now is more planes, more weapons and more enlisted men — and fewer colonels and generals. This senseless yammering for extra rank is becoming more than the taxpayers can bear.

"If it was needed for security —yes, I'd be for it, but I'm not going to approve any further robbing of the taxpayers when the current officer strength is sufficient to meet the present day emergency, which the state department tells us isn't too serious."

Chairman Carl Vinson of Georgia heartily agreed, though Representative Paul Kilday of San Antonio, Texas, held out for the 21,000-officer increase.

"You can't justify the increase in view of present conditions," said Vinson. "It's too big. The taxpayers are carrying all they can bear, short of an actual war emergency, and that is not in prospect at the present time. If we gave you fellows all you want, we might wreck our economy."

Missouri Highwaymen

Joseph R. Gilmore, a Philadelphia dairyman, has lodged a stiff protest with President Truman about the way the Missouri state highway department treats non-Missourians.

Gilmore reported to Truman that a Missouri highway patrolman stopped one of his trucks at Gray Summit, Mo., and poured 1,800 pounds of its milk cargo out on the ground because the truck was overweight, due to ice accumulation on the under carriage. The truck was making an emergency trip to Tulsa, Oklahoma, to help relieve a milk shortage there.

The Philadelphia dairyman reported that the Missouri state highway department wouldn't even let the truck proceed a few miles to a milk station — where the overweight milk could have been unloaded and sent to a hospital or charitable institution. Instead, they ordered the milk dumped on the ground on the spot.

Senatorial Luck

New Mexico's senator Clint Anderson, who not long ago sat at the head of the agriculture department, took a back seat in the senate the other day after losing a five-cent bet.

The occasion was the drawing for senate seats by the 12 new Democratic senators. The coveted seats are up front near the rostrum. However, only two of these were available to freshmen senators.

Lyndon Johnson of Texas, one of the 12, complained that he never had any luck at drawings. Nevertheless he bet five cents with Anderson over who would get the best seat.

Anderson reached in the hat and drew a rear seat. Johnson waited until last to draw. So did Oklahoma's senator Bob Kerr. Neither wanted to draw first.

"You were in Congress before me," Kerr deferred. "Go ahead and draw."

"But you were governor of a state," Johnson protested. "That's higher than a congressman. You draw first."

Finally they agreed to reach in the hat the same time — and got the only two front seats available to freshmen.

Johnson also collected a nickel from Anderson.

GOP Changes on Tariffs

A closed-door caucus of House Republicans this week revealed the significant fact that the high tariff Grundyites of the Republican party are losing out. Many GOP congressmen expressed support for the reciprocity treaties, previously mangled by the 80th Congress. Here are the highlights of the secret GOP session:

Representative Robert Kean of New Jersey and Hal Holmes of Washington explained why they joined Democrats in voting for the reciprocity trade measure in the ways and means committee. The reciprocal program is a vital part of our international trade relations, said Holmes, who comes from the great apple growing section of Washington.

Both Holmes and Kean argued for an amendment to give the U. S. tariff commission authority to make recommendations to the president on tariff reductions, which caused elder statesman Jim Wadsworth of New York to inquire:

"By the way, just what does the tariff commission do any more? Maybe we ought to put it to work to justify its existence."

Reported Representative Robert J. Corbett of Pennsylvania: "For years my Pittsburgh district was a stronghold for the high tariff, but now the majority of my people are for this reciprocal program and against high tariffs. That includes, I might add, not only labor, but many industrial leaders. They want to see the program extended."

"They'll live to regret it," countered Corbett's fellow-stater, Dick Simpson, dean of the Pennsylvania GOP House delegation. He announced that he would fight to the last against "this program to penalize American industry" and undermine the spirit of "free enterprise," which, he said, had made us the "greatest nation in the world."

New York's Dan Reed also tossed some verbal harpoons, claiming that the administration had discriminated against American business by failing to put an "escape clause" in the bill whereby trade treaties could be opened up and re-negotiated in cases where American producers were injured by foreign competition.

In general, however, the debate showed that the GOP had learned a lesson from November when it came to the subject of tariffs.

A Valentine for Elmer

Every year, lovers all over the country send thousands of Valentines to Loveland, Colo., like they send Christmas cards to Santa Claus, Ind. They like the romantic cancellations Postmaster Elmer M. Ivers puts on the cards when he remails them to the addressees. But no one ever sends a valentine to Elmer—personal, for him. So a Cleveland, O., greeting card publisher decided Postmaster Elmer should have a big Valentine all to himself—and here it is, delivered by Annie Malony, a Denver radio actress. Piles of Valentine cards can be seen on the desk at right, waiting for this year's Loveland cancellation, which reads, "A Valentine Greeting from Sweetheart Town, Loveland, Colorado." Elmer blushed a little, but he liked the five-foot square card. Mary did, too.

Airy Steps to Spring:

New Shoes Offer Feet More Freedom In Open-Toed And Lacy Styling

TOES will be out by spring. This freedom is promised by the revival of open-toed shoes which are returning in greater numbers on platform soles. Such shoe styles fit like a foot into a pump into the general spring picture of airy, lacy fashions.

Even shoes with closed toes manage to look lacy with straps that criss-cross above an instep or around an ankle. The walking shoe which answers to that name with low heels and square, roomy toes sports a little "lace": fringed tongues, tiny leather tassels or a bit of open work.

—EPSIE KINARD, NEA Fashion Editor.

These spring shoe fashions are examples of new lacy styling of footwear. Fringed tassels soften the overlaid tongue on walking shoes of bamboo beige calfskin (center). Platform soles build up open-toed, ankle-strap sandals of navy blue suede (top left) which have openwork bands across throat and heel. For the open-toed platform sandals (upper right) strips of red, white and blue kidskin are gathered on a leather cord which laces across the instep. Scalloped cut-outs give delicate detail to green suede platform sling pumps (bottom right). Fawn-colored suede shoes (bottom left) have straps buttoned to form a butterfly design over the instep.

February is International Friendship month, February 22 is Girl Scout Thinking Day around the world. Think seriously in the troops this week of what International Friendship means, and prepare a program for meetings for the week of February 20, remembering sister Scouts and Guides around the world. Think of George Washington whose birthday is February 22, and all that he did for his country.

February 22 is also Lord and Lady Baden Powell's birthdays, the founders of Scouting for boys and girls, through the years in all countries.

Think of these three people and how the things they did have affected our lives. Look into the future and think of how Scout leadership will affect the young people who come after us.

Valentine Party

Mrs. Maness and Mrs. Mines treated the 19 girls in their troop to home made cookies, covered with red icing. The centerpiece was a gayly decorated Valentine box, with the troop number on the side and valentines for everyone in the troop.

Senior Girl Scout Troop 25, Hubbard school, met at the home of Miss Mary Jane Cox, leader, for a business meeting, with the following officers elected: Barbara Parks, president; Geneve Brown, vice-president; Marleeta Cox, secretary; Virginia Brown, treasurer; Earnestine Burris, Chaplain; Sadie Winstead and Catheryn Patton, song leaders and Doris Williams, reporter.

The girls are planning a needle work display in the very near future. Plans were completed for the Valentine party for Tuesday, the 15th. After the business session the girls enjoyed refreshments, took pictures and played games. Mrs. C. H. Gooch, in scouting since 1939, is co-leader.

Of the 45 million motor vehicles in use throughout the world in 1946, nearly 34 millions were in the United States.

Of the 2,148,000 passenger cars produced in the United States in 1946, only 144,000 were exported, or 6.7%.

Mundt Speaks In Springfield

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Feb. 12—(AP)—The Democratic administration has an "allegiance to Red," Senator Karl Mundt (R-SD) told Missouri Republican leaders here tonight at a banquet of the Missouri Association of Republicans.

"It used red ink in finances, refers to Red herring in its campaign oratory and employes Red sympathizers in high government jobs," Mundt said.

Addressing the final session of a two-day Republican rally here, Mundt told his colleagues they should not be downhearted at their November defeat at the polls.

He reminded that this year marks the 100th anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's leaving Congress. He noted that Lincoln left a discouraged and disillusioned man, determined that he had no chance of reelection. Yet, a few years later, he was elected President.

Gift Train in Kansas City

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 12—(AP)—About 200 persons, mostly veterans in uniform, ignored the sleet and freezing rain to greet the French "Merci Train" here tonight.

Gov. Frank Carlson of Kansas and Lt. Gov. James T. Blair, representing Missouri, accepted their states' cars from the "thank you" entourage.

Heads were bared to the ice-laden wind as the national anthems of the two nations were played.

Then Madame Denise Davey of Paris, one of the directors of American Aid to France, explained how the French people were trying to express their gratitude for the food and clothing sent them on the friendship train from the United States last year.

"On behalf of France, I thank you from the bottom of my heart," she said. "The gifts on this train were collected from everybody in France. All of these gifts are expressions of love."

Drew Pearson, Washington columnist, who started the friendship train idea, did not arrive to take part in the ceremony. His plane was grounded by bad weather at Jefferson City, and he was forced to take a train which did not get him here in time.

Two Sentenced To Prison

Two men were found guilty, one of forgery, and the other burglary and larceny at a special session of circuit court at California, Mo., Saturday afternoon. Circuit Judge Sam C. Blair sentenced Thomas M. Neal, alias T. E. Luster, of Roswell, N. M. to ten years in the state penitentiary; Herman Potter of Jamestown, Mo., was given four years.

Neal was arrested by highway patrolmen, Monday afternoon between Fulton and Jefferson City. It was reported that five other states wanted him for similar charges.

California had first claim on him. There he allegedly forged three checks ranging in amounts between five dollars and $46.63.

His wife, Doris Irene is being held in the California county jail.

Potter was arrested Tuesday by local authorities for breaking into a home at Jamestown and taking a watch and ring.

Russians Cut Off Shipments

BERLIN, Feb. 12—(AP)—The Russians today choked off land routes for Swedish Red Cross food shipments to west Berlin's children, another step in the cold war.

Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov, Soviet commander, told the Swedes that such shipments were banned to prevent any food entering the blockaded western sectors. Only gifts for the Russian sector will be admitted.

The Swedes had been sending enough food to provide an extra meal a day to all mal-nourished Berlin children three to six years old.

Allied officials disclosed they will counter-act this Russian move by flying in the Swedish food supplies on the airlift.

Pioneer Theatricals Coming Back in New Study at M. U.

Pioneer theatricals are again springing to life in a new study being made at the University of Missouri. Elbert R. Bowen, Instructor in Speech at the University, is writing a history of theatrical entertainments in Missouri, prior to 1900.

Bowen is studying both the professional theatrical troupes, which began to tour the state as early as 1835, and also amateur thespian societies, many of which sprang up in Missouri towns before the Civil War. He is not limiting his research to just the stage but is also including in his study, showboats, circuses, menageries, minstrels, musicians, magicians, and tableaux.

Material In Newspapers

Old newspapers are serving as a chief source for the study, but Mr. Bowen believes that many people have old scrapbooks, clippings, handbills, record books, pictures, diaries, or letters which will prove of great value in showing what the people of those days really thought of the entertainments provided them.

Persons knowing of the existence of any such materials which Mr. Bowen could inspect can write to him in care of the University, at Columbia.

The Sedalia Dramatic Society gave its first performance on November 19, 1866. Mr. William Latour, a photographer and actor, directed the group, and he even constructed a theater in "Latour's Block" at the corner of Ohio avenue and Fourth street in 1879. Other people in the society were: Laura Hall, later, Mrs. L. L. Highleyman, Laura Dake, Josephine Lyon, L. L. Bridges, an attorney; W. W. S. Snoddy, a colonel in the Union army, also a teacher and a lawyer; George Townsley, E. H. Townsley, E. H. Reinish.

The Ilgen House Block (Ilgenfritz Opera House) was opened in 1867, on Ohio avenue and Smith's Opera House was opened in 1869.

Dutch Treat Should be Handled With Matter-of-Fact Discussion

This young girl hands over her share of a Dutch-treat dinner check to her escort so that he may pay waiter.

By Alicia Hart
NEA Staff Writer

Proposing a Dutch treat to a young escort who might otherwise have to forego the pleasure of your company is a gesture any girl is privileged to make.

You can make it a nicer gesture, however, by allowing the young man to be outwardly the master of the situation. When you concede that privilege to a boy friend, you will not, of course march up with your check in hand plus the wherewithal to pay it. Turn these over to your escort before leaving a soda fountain or a restaurant table.

If you respect masculine sensitivity, you will whisper the "How much do I owe?" query. When you hand over your share of the check, be matter-of-fact about the gesture.

A girl who proposes having a snack, a lunch or a dinner on a fifty-fifty basis must go through with her share of the bargain. Any failure to do so is certain to mark her as a bum sport.

When you look Back...

There are times when it is difficult to appreciate the significant beauty of that which must be. But in the years that follow, when all that is left is memory, you may look back, content that "A Gillespie Memorial" was a perfect tribute in every way.

The Tables Are Turned

With food prices dropping rapidly, market proprietors are forced to resort to those almost forgotten arts—salesmanship and merchandising—to lure customers. At a meat market in New York, hostess Renee Kleiman, left, passes out free coffee and sandwiches to shoppers. Police had been stationed outside to keep order, but the expected mobs didn't materialize.

Atom Smasher Gets Face Lifted

The world's largest atom smasher, in the University of California at Berkeley, has been given a face-lifting so it can produce the mysterious cosmic ray particles that lie in the heart of the atomic nucleus. The giant 4000-ton cyclotron has been given an oscillator system that operates like a radio broadcasting station to pour out the world's most powerful beam of protons. When these high energy protons strike a target, neutrons ranging in energy up to 350 million electron volts emerge from the bombardment. Above, Prof. Edwin M. McMillan adjusts the intricate mechanism.

Guida Sets New 500-Yard Mark

NEW YORK, Feb 12—(AP)—George Guida of Villanova established a new world indoor record of 56.9 seconds for 500 yards when he captured the Buermeyer Cup at the New York Athletic Club indoor games tonight.

The Villanova Olympian's performance before a crowd of some 12,000 eclipsed the previous world and American indoor mark of 71.1 seconds set in the 1942 New York A.C. meet by Alfred Diebolt, Jr., of Colgate.

Guida was pushed all the way by Jack Hammack of Army, who missed overtaking him at the tape by less than a yard and was clocked in 57.1 seconds, equalling the fastest previous time ever recorded on the boards for the distance.

Tom Dickey of Louisana State came from behind on the final lap to win the Matt Halpin half-mile by five yards.

The Sugar Bowl and Southeastern Conference champion covered the five-and-one-half laps on the Garden's wooden saucer in 1:54.5, with Tarver Perkins of the Illinois Athletic Club second and Carl Joyce of Seton Hall Prep third in the field of six.

Willy Slykhuis of Holland became the first foreigner ever to win the historic Baxter mile when he outran an international field in the feature event of the New York Athletic Club's indoor games tonight to win going away in 4:09.2.

Springfield Bears Remain Undefeated

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Feb. 12—(AP) — Southwest Missouri State college's Bears, the nation's only undefeated collegiate quintet, breezed to a 59-36 victory over Powell's Sport Shop of Kansas City, an outstanding AAU team, here tonight.

Gene Ruble, SMS forward, got things started off quickly by scoring 14 points of his 15-point total during the first 15 minutes of play. Ed (Curly) Cook counted on long shots to rack up a 12-point total for the Bears.

The SMS five took the lead at the outset and were never threatened. Coach Andy McDonald used his reserves throughout most of the second half.

SWMS Leads Defense, Field Goal Averages

NEW YORK, Feb. 12—(AP)—Southwest Missouri State of Springfield has the highest field goal percentage among the nation's smaller college basketball teams.

The Bears hit 270 times from the field in 655 tries for a .412 percentage, said the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau, reporting on games through Feb. 5.

The Springfield team still is the best defensive unit in the small college group. In 15 contests the Bears permitted only 36.1 points per game. Hamline Minn., is second with 42.6 in 15 games.

George King, Morris Harvey's scoring wizard, held his individual leadership with a 28.5 average in 15 games.

Colorado Beats Kansas In Big-7 Track Meet

BOULDER, Colo., Feb. 12—(AP)—Don Campbell won the 60-yard dash and the low hurdles today to lead Colorado to a 58½ to 45½ victory over Kansas in a Big Seven Conference indoor track dual.

Colorado won first place in seven of the 12 events and blanked the Jayhawkers in the 60-yard dash as Augie Rasco and Bob Giacomini followed Campbell to the tape.

The meet was the first between the two schools and was Colorado's first indoor dual meet since 1942.

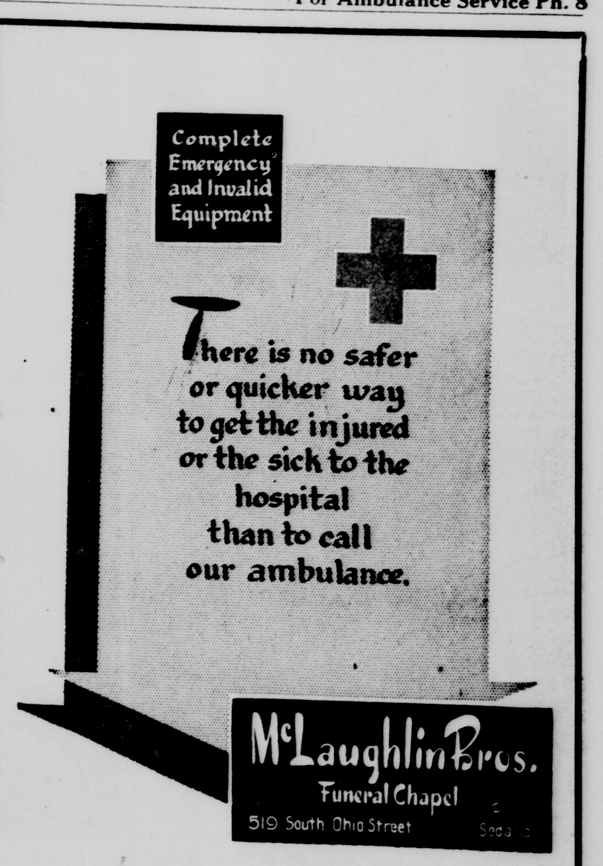

Bob Karnes, Kansas' Big Seven mile and two-mile champion, won the mile handily but was second by 60 yards in the two-mile as Colorado's George Fitzmorris breezed in easily.

Clare Gregg of Colorado scored a big upset when he won the pole vault at 13 feet. Warren Bateman of Colorado, national collegite co-champion, couldn't get past 12-6 and took second.

Sackcloth and Ash-Blue

One Makes a Gown, the Other is a Color in the New Paris Styles; the Big Idea: Stoop Over a Bit

By ROSETTE HARGROVE
NEA Staff Correspondent

PARIS—(NEA)—Plain, old, unromantic gunny-sacking has graduated into the luxury class in the Paris world of high fashion.

Its appearance in the new collections is probably the most drastic item of a "1949 Look" which otherwise indicates an obviously non-drastic urge on the part of Parisian creators.

Very little has been done about the hemline, but there has been a considerable amount of winnowing elsewhere. The result is a more flexible silhouette, free from the restraint of corsets, petticoats and unnecessary adjuncts which modern women found hard to accept.

To acquire the "1949 Look"—according to Jacques Fath, who also came up with the gunny-sacking—women will have to cultivate an ever-so-slightly rounded back and stooped shoulders.

He calls this his "Thrown Forward" line, which modifies the silhouette considerably and narrows the bust, making "uplift" brassieres unnecessary. It is achieved with deep funnel-shaped collars, for instance, with round-shouldered boleros, and "pyramid" coats which have deep inverted pleats and turned-back fronts.

The gunny-sacking showed up in an elaborate cocktail dress, a formal evening gown and an evening coat. The garnishing created just as much of a sensation; half-shells of walnuts, almonds hazel nuts on raffia, string and cotton embroidery picked out with spangles and rhinestones.

In all the collections, it would seem that skirt hems will be pretty generally fixed between 13 and 14 inches from the floor for daytime, sometimes acquiring a few inches as the day grows older.

"Paper cone" is the big name in the collection of Jean Desses, one of the "young lions" of Paris couture. This is a skirt dne in spiral movement, which either clings to the figure in tailored wool dresses or widens out at the hem over stiffened underskirts in lighter fabrics.

"And with Schiaparelli, it's the "Hurricane Silhouette." Here the figure is molded in soft spiral folds with all fullness swept backwards. It appears, for example, in an unfitted suit jacket with a flare at the back stiffened to stand out, and, in a full topcoat built on fitted redingote lines in front with a full flaring back.

Beachware—as typified in the Schiaparelli collection—is far less "naked" than it has been in many seasons. But her swimsuits, nevertheless, are strapless, very brief, and mold the body, either in gleaming white or black satin.

A point of interest this season is that there are practically no floral prints in the collections. A few striped and dotted fabrics are being shown, but by far the preference is for monotones.

Designer Jacques Fath drapes a plaid skirt for spring showing. The theme: "Thrown Forward."

And the colors in these monotones?

Putty and clay, often combined with black and navy, along with deep and light violets, mimosa, lemon yellow and a good deal of white for Fath; lots of black, always contrasted with a color (wild rose, blotting paper pink, "ash" blue) and a new shade of light navy with a purplish cast for Desses ;navy and black, along with sun yellow, sunset orange, storm gray, lightning blue and angel white for Schiaparelli.

Fashion Design Peps up Prosy Household Articles

By Kay Sherwood
NEA Staff Writer

High fashion enters the home this spring to transform prosy household articles into glamorous accessories.

Dressed up to the nines, for example, are covers for mattresses and box springs, designed by Schiaparelli. The French designer who turns her talents to the business of glamorizing mattresses does the job with boldly striped tickings tied up with huge ribbon bowknots. Other Schiaparelli-designed covers for new mattresses feature brilliant motifs of ribbon-tied nosegays and distinctive "damask-weave" fabrics. Colors feature two-tones and monotones of gray blue, pink, yellow, orange, brown. More of the same fabrics are used to make padded head boards to match mattresses.

Today's fashion vogue inspired by impressionistic paintings gets its innings in the home as designs for fabrics. Shower curtains, in particular, owe their arty new look to Degas masterpieces. This artist's ballet dancers are reproduced in motifs hand painted in vinyl ink on a velon film. This makes shimmering new shower curtains for glamming up a bathroom. Colors used for the reproductions closely approximate the originals. Reproductions of Van Gogh still-life paintings and Renoir landscapes decorate other shower curtains.

The somber black telephone blossoms out into fancy dress thanks to colorful tenite plastic cases. These cases which snap in place over any standard bell-enclosed telephone provide a lustrous sheathe which can be color-matched to room decor.

To cook up more beauty in the kitchen is the aim of new finishes used for functional pieces of equipment. The Plain Jane look of wood or steel cabinets disappears under Cinderella finishes of pink, salmon, yellow, turquoise and mint green. Cocoa brown and deep blue are other colors used to accent the decor of kitchens. And, if Mrs. America chooses, she can also order up a pink stove, a yellow refrigerator or a blue sink color matched to cabinets!

Less ostentatious but no less glamorous are the old fashioned hot water bottles encased in quilted stain as exquisitely embroidered as a baby's chistening dress.

Ballet dancer with bouquet which is hand-painted on shower curtain is reproduction of Degas' art masterpiece.

Colored plastic case which snaps in place glamorizes conventional black telephone to match room decor.

Business Good in Sedalia

According to the Monthly Review of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, general business in Sedalia during December, debits to deposit accounts at banks aggregated $11,067,000 and were 3 per cent more than those for the same month last year. The debit figures represent for the most part checks against depositors' accounts in payment of goods, services and debts, and are considered a good indicator of general business activity.

No Delay is Given Mitchum

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 12—(AP)—RKO studio tried Friday to get actor Robert Mitchum's freedom long enough to finish his current picture—but lost.

So Mitchum's lawyer and idea man, Jerry Giesler came up with another suggestion: Film it at the county honor farm.

Giesler didn't indicate how serious he is about it, but told reporters:

"The scenery's just about like Mexico. It might be something for the studio to consider."

Mitchum and the cast of "The Big Steal" were due to leave tomorrow for Mexico to finish shooting on the half-completed, $750,000 production. But Mitchum and Actress Lila Leeds, who isn't in the picture, were sentenced to 60 days on conviction of conspiring to possess marijuana.

Today Mitchum and Giesler returned to Superior Judge Clement D. Nye's court, seeking modification. Giesler said he was acting at the studio's request, and told the judge:

"I am to blame for not bringing this matter up before. It is not for Mitchum, but for some 90 to 150 persons who are employed on his current picture. They will be pretty hard hit."

But the judge said:

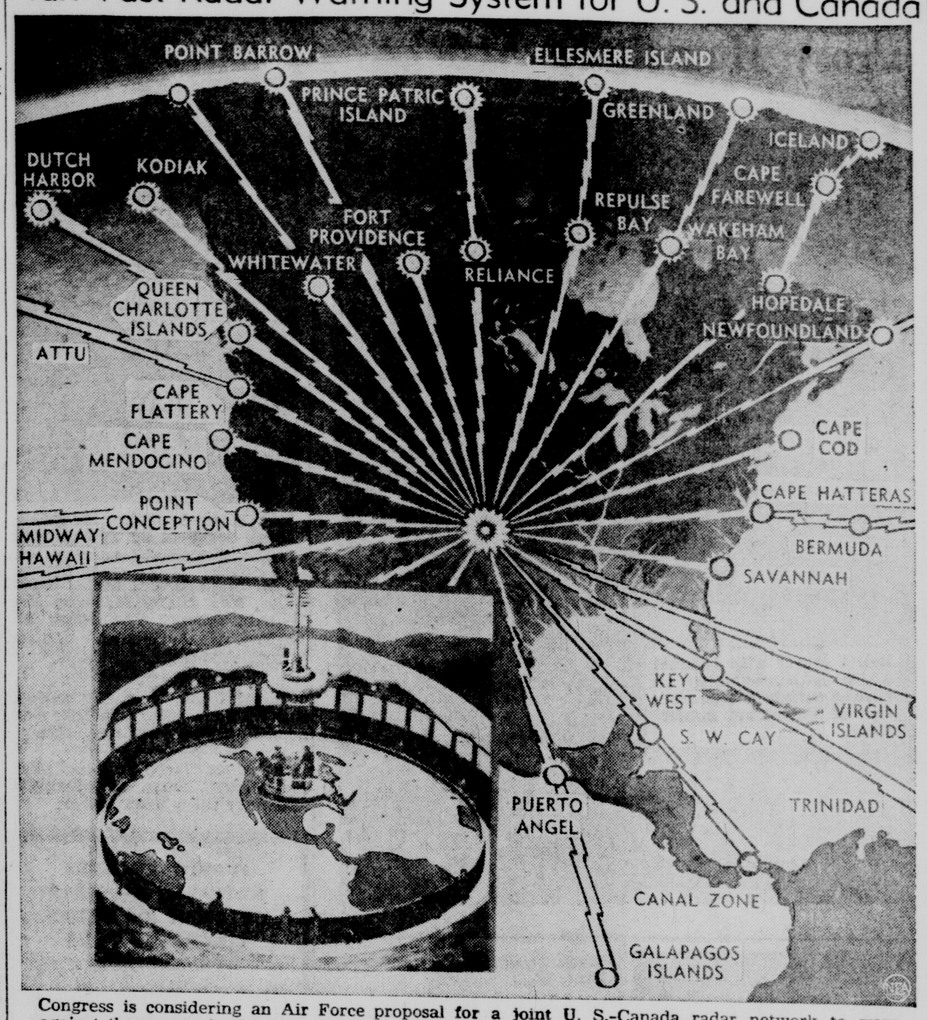

"You requested the court to treat this defendant as any other defendant in like circumstances would be treated This matter has been on calendar since last September. Those who are asking this delay certainly knew there was a hazard."

Mitchum, 31, wasn't unhappy, commenting: "Now that I've started my sentence, I'd as soon get it over with." He's still in jail, assigned to polishing cell bars and mopping the floor but hopes to be transferred to the honor farm, where prisoners work out-of-doors on agricultural pursuits.

Mitchum's studio arranged to continue shooting scenes on location in Mexico without him. One planeload of workers booked passage for Mexico City tonight. Another plane carrying actress Jane Greer, actor William Bendix and others of the cast departs tomorrow night.

The studio said scenes will be filmed near Mexico City, Vera Cruz and Tehuacan. Later he will go to Mexico for filming of scenes in which he appears.

Plan Vast Radar Warning System for U. S. and Canada

Congress is considering an Air Force proposal for a joint U. S.-Canada radar network to warn against the approach of hostile aircraft. The U. S. share of the cost would be $161,000,000. While warning that the system will not provide anything like an "airtight" radar fence, the Air Force said it would provide warning of planes up to 300 miles away—sufficient to enable the Air Force to prepare a defense. The map above illustrates one plan for such a radar network as urged recently by F. H. Lack, chairman of the radio industry's mobilization committee, in the magazine Mechanix Illustrated. The radar stations would be in touch with the central control post (inset) by television.

Kem Attacks Truman Claims

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Feb. 12—(AP)—Sen. James Kem Friday night attacked what he called the "far reaching claims" of President Truman and accused the chief executive of "working both sides of the street."

Senator Kem spoke before a meeting of the Missouri Young Republican Federation. That organization and four other statewide Republican organizations are gathered here for a two-day celebration of Lincoln's birthday anniversary.

The Republican senator said he saw cause for alarm in Mr. Truman's statement that he held an inherent power to act in any national emergency.

"Just who would determine what is right for the United States in the time of a national emergency?" asked Senator Kem. "At the present time it would be Mr. Truman, or it might be Henry Wallace, or some other individual who happens to be President in any emergency and suddenly finds in his bosom an overpowering desire to become a dictator for the people's good.

"Neither our constitution nor our history will sustain these far-reaching claims of the President," Kem said.

Disclose Plot to Blast Stadium

SEOUL, Saturday Feb 12—(AP)—Korean police today disclosed a plot to dynamite the Seoul stadium at a welcoming rally for the United Nations Commission on Korea later in the day.

Police captain Park Po Yung said nine men were under arrest.

Of the nine three others who confessed the plot gave information leading to the apprehension of six more during the night, Park reported.

The officer said the trio were nabbed in the act of carrying 70 feet of wire in the vicinity of the stadium.

The U. N. commission has just arrived here to see what it can do to unify Korea -divided into American and Soviet Russian occupation zones, with rival Korean governments in each sector.

President Syngman Rhee of the Korean republic in the American zone—and U. N. delegates from China, France, Australia, the Philippines, Syria and India, and foreign diplomats planned to attend the stadium rally.

Capt. Park said the trio arrested first said they were to meet their confederates to plant time bombs under the stadium grandstand.

Switch to CBS By Bergen

NEW YORK, Feb. 12—(AP)—The Columbia Broadcasting System Friday added ventriloquist Edgar Bergen and his wooden assistant, Charlie McCarthy, to its talent fold.

Starting next fall Bergen, who had been on NBC for a decade until temporarily retiring from radio at the end of 1948, will be heard on CBS Sunday at 8 to 8:30 p. m., EST. He will be sponsored by Coca-Cola.

The switch of Bergen to CBS is the latest in a series that followed the big money, capital gains deals in which the network got Amos 'N' Andy and Jack Benny away from NBC. Others who have announced they will go to CBS include Bing Crosby Red Skelton and Ozzie and Harriet Nelson. Frank Sinatra announced this week he was negotiating to switch to CBS and was leaving his NBC show.

Aside from the Amos 'N' Andy and Benny deals, the only CBS cash outlay involved was in getting Bing Crosby who now broadcasts over ABC. The three transactions are said to involve something like $5,000,000 spread out over a period of years and give the network a number of financial benefits in addition to sale of time.

The others reportedly were switches initiated by the sponsors themselves, including the Bergen transaction which had been expected for some time.

If Stomach Gas or Sour Food Taste Robs You of Sleep

Here's How You May Help, Whether You Eat 500 Pounds or 2000 Pounds of Food In a Year

You can't feel cheerful, be happy and sleep well, if your stomach is always upset. As age advances the "old stomach" needs more help. The reason is this:

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains very special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with overdoses of soda and other alkalizers to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

See Army of Germans as Russia's Not-So-Secret Weapon

Informed sources think Russia is preparing a new diplomatic bombshell — a demand for early withdrawal of all four-power occupation troops from the country. The Germans would certainly like to have their country back, but, as these maps show, it would create a situation perilous to the democratic Germans and to the western powers. It would leave the Soviet organized German "People's" police force in control of Eastern Germany and in position to overrun the country. This "police" force is really a Red army, consisting of German war veterans equipped with tanks, artillery and other heavy weapons. French estimates put 500,000 German troops under Soviet command. Photo, below left, shows a German "People's" policeman in blockaded Soviet sector of Berlin checking German truck bound for British sector.

Sedalia Typewriter Company Has New 1949 Royal

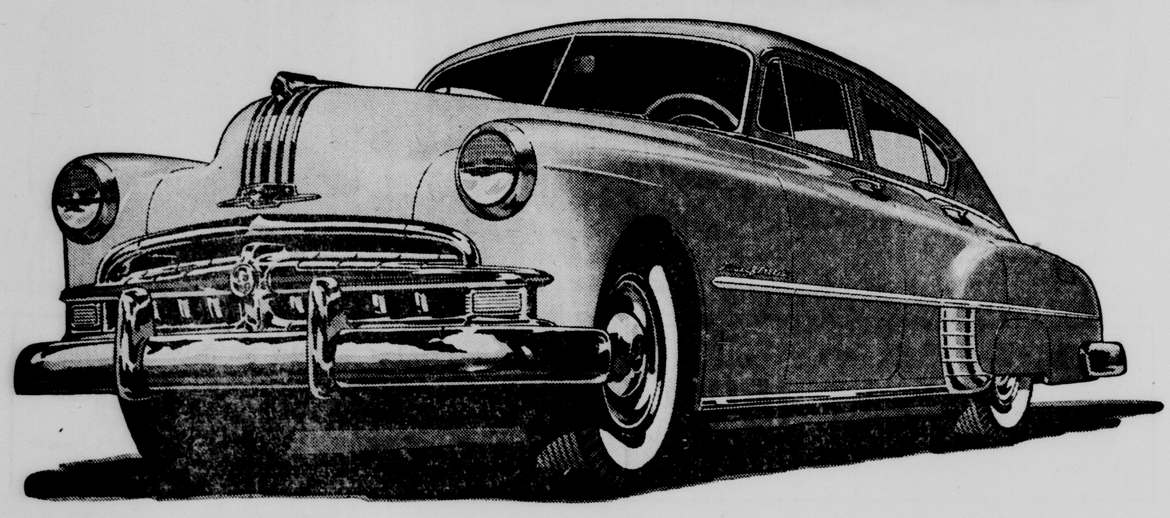

Increased writing comfort and performance is stressed in the new office typewriter model just announced by Royal — the new Gray Magic Royal—according to Charlie Hofheins, owner of the Sedalia Typewriter company, and local sales and service representative for the Royal Typewriter Co.

The color of the new 1949 model is a new soft gray tone which gives added eye comfort to the operator.

Among the many other changes in the new Gray Magic Royal is the uniquely-shaped, non-glare finger-flow keys. The keys, flat in front and with concave surface, are exactly shaped to fit the finger. They afford extra clearance between rows of keys thereby increasing the operator's accuracy as well as protection for fingernails.

Apropos of nothing in particular:—the man who fights for what he believes, is not without enemies.

Farmer Mayberry speaking before the Knife and Fork club said: "People without convictions are people without a purpose; without purpose, the people are lost." That IS apropos either in Sedalia or the nation.

Alcoholics Anonymous in Sedalia has passed its first anniversary.

Very little is heard about this organization which quietly goes about saving the souls of men, restoring peace to sorrowing families, ressurecting derelicts to good citizenship.

It is a privilege to attend a meeting of this group on invitation and hear the experiences of men and women afflicted with the drink disease relate how Alcoholics Anonymous lifted them from the depths of physical and mental despair.

Those not acquainted with the A. A. program find it hard to believe in such transformations. Yet the greatest encouragement, the highest respect should be given the men and women who adopt, cling to and practice the philosophy of Alcoholics Anonymous. There is no flimflam, buncombe nor chicanery about this movement. It is not a commercial venture but a banding together for mutual help of those who are alergic to alcohol.

These people who once reached the gutter have become men and women of purpose again, indebted to the divine blessing of a sympathetic Supreme Being.

Every man and woman has a spark of Divinity within him whether he or she wants to admit it or not. Those troubled souls who are victims of the drink disease should allow that spark to shine more brightly by giving the Alcoholics Anonymous group a chance to aid them. It costs nothing except the momentary fortitude of allowing this group to function for and with them. Few who take this first step ever return to the horror of living the way they once did.

—O—

Now that the ice and snow has melted away hidden depredations of Old Man Winter are disclosed.

Sedalia's streets took a terrible beating. Many of them look like the pocked features of a recovered smallpox victim. Holes are everywhere and the street department is going to have a busy season and an expensive one repairing the damage. Until this is done a little less speeding on the streets will save considerable tire damage.

Right now there seems to be some uncertainty over who shall repair the damage to Highway 50 and Highway 65 running through Sedalia—the City of Sedalia or the State Highway Department. Both Broadway and Missouri avenue are pretty badly chopped up, not only because of the winter weather damage, but also because of the heavy truck traffic diverted from Highway 40 over 65 and 50 since 40 has been closed for resurfacing between Marshall Junction and Highway 13. Broadway is part of Highway 50 and 65, and Missouri part of Highway 65.

Now is the time to determine whether the city or the state will make these necessary repairs—and make them soon. Interminable buck passing should not be tolerated. City officials have already taken the matter in hand and they should be encouraged to have the issue resolved at the earliest possible moment.

—O—

If, as administration legal experts declare, the President of the United States already has power in national emergencies to stop strikes without appealing to the courts, then why all his fuss about removing the injunction process from the laws?

If the president has such powers without the law, why did he use the law against John L. Lewis, or why did he appeal to Congress for authority to move against the railroad czar?

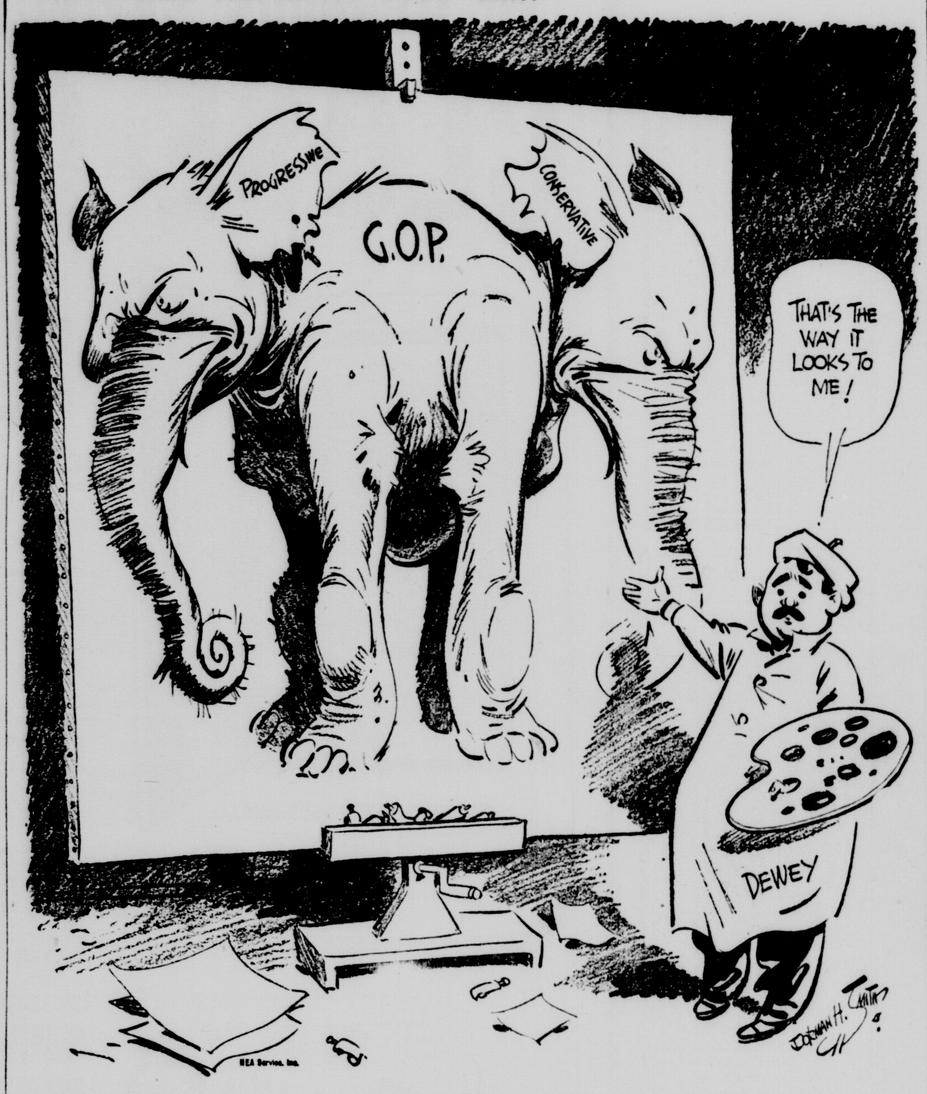

Do opponents of the law, as it affects national emergencies, prefer it unwritten rather than written? Are they being meticulous or petulant?

Those who readily accede now to hidden powers of a leader may live to regret their momentary insensibility of what all this implies toward weakening and endangering constitutional government.

—O—

'Tis said that lowering of atmospheric pressure causes flowers to smell sweeter. Maybe if there was a lowering of lobby pressures Congress would enact more sweet-smelling legislation.

Ambassador to Israel Named

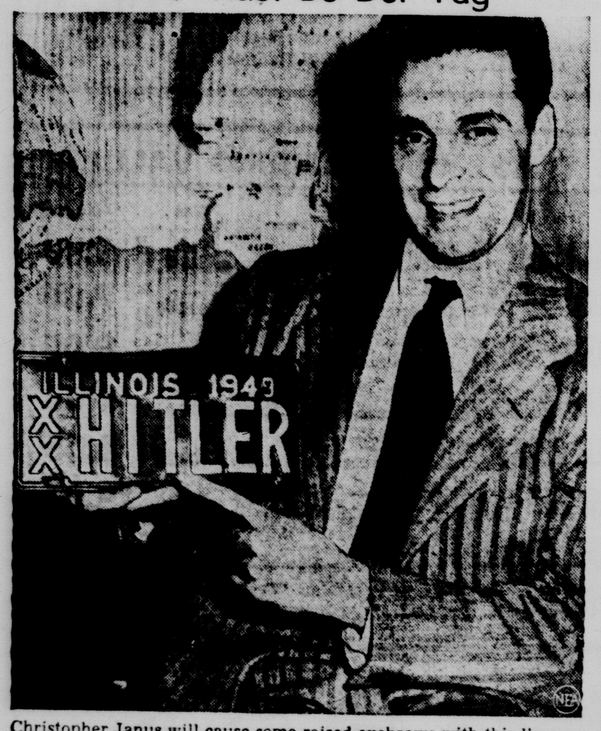

TEL AVIV, Israel, Feb. 12—(AP)—James G. McDonald of Bronxville, N. Y., has been named the first United States Ambassador to Israel, an official source said Friday.

He has been serving here since last June as special American representative.

Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok hailed the state department's appointment of McDonald as a "new important landmark in the evolution of friendly, cordial relations between the United States and Israel." The Israeli mission in Washington also will be raised and to embassy rank.

McDonald was high commissioner for refugees, Jewish and others, coming from Germany during the Nazi ascendancy in the years from 1933 to 1935.

Christopher Janus will cause some raised eyebrows with this license plate, with the letters H-I-T-L-E-R on it. Janus, a Chicago importer, owns Adolf Hitler's five-ton armored Mercedes-Benz limousine, and decided he should have a distinctive tag to go with it.

Armless Child, Five, Soon Get Left Arm

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 12—(AP)—Five-year-old Grace Purcell, who came here from Georgia to get artificial arms, will have her left limb in about two months, the Crippled Children's Hospital reported Friday.

Dr. Henry H. Kessler, chief of staff of the hospital, operated 11 days ago on the child who was born with only stumps of arms ending above the elbow.

The bandages were removed today from the left stump and Dr Kessler tested the "motor," a loop of muscle which will operate her mechanical arm. "Everything is fine," Dr. Kessler said.

The hospital said her right arm is not yet sufficiently developed to permit a similar operation but the same surgery probably would be tried later.

Grace's trip to Newark was made possible by a fund started by a railroad engineer who wondered why Grace never waved like other children when he passed her home.

Slight Damage To An Auto By Fire

Flames creeping out from underneath a hood of a 1941 Chevrolet coach in the 200 block on east Broadway, caused traffic to be temporarily blocked, Friday afternoon at about 5:00 o'clock.

The blaze was believed to have started from a choked carburetor. A motorist about the time the blaze started stopped and extinguished it with a car fire extinguisher. The fire was out upon the fire trucks arrival.

Paint burned around the hood was the only damage to the car, which is owned by R. H. Sims, 620 East Broadway.

The Isle of Man, in the Irish Sea, is equidistant from England, Scotland and Ireland.

World's Longest Conveyor May Link Lakes With Ohio River

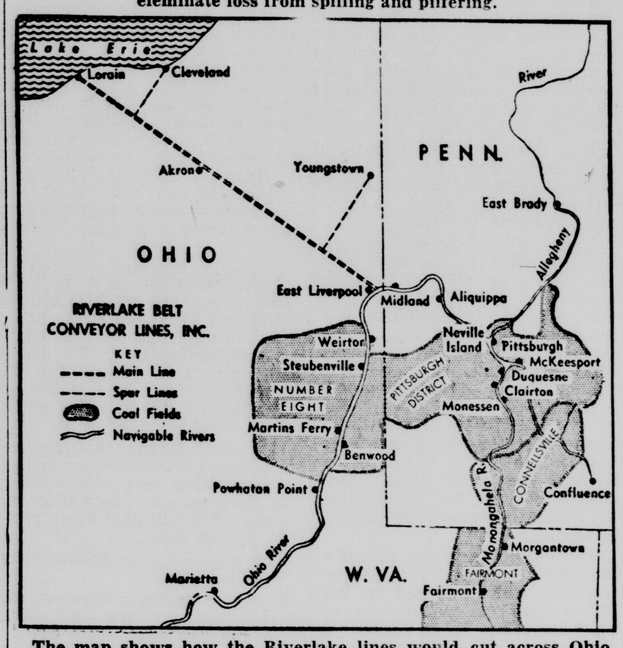

This is how the Lorain terminal will look when in operation, with iron ore being unloaded from a Great Lakes ore carrier. Some of the ore goes directly to the southbound belt. Other ore is stockpiled on the dock against winter, when the lakes are frozen over, insuring an even year-around flow to steel mills.

The elevated conveyor would be built high enough so that there would be sufficient clearance as it passes over roads, railroad tracks and other obstacles. It would be solid steel, so that operation would not be curtailed during severe weather, and to eleminate loss from spilling and pilfering.

Inside the 18-foot wide overhead steel gallery, the two belts run side by side. There will be space in-between for maintenance men to walk, checking the operation. Shown here is a typical transfer point, where northbound coal and southbound iron ore go from one of 172 separate "flights," or stages, to another.

The map shows how the Riverlake lines would cut across Ohio to handle 3400 tons of coal, or 5400 tons of heavier ore, an hour, linking Lake Irie with the Ohio river. The lines will be able and it would take 15 hours and 14 minutes for one ton to go from one terminal to the other.

A radically new freight transportation scheme promising far-reaching effects on Great Lakes and Ohio river commerce and the wealth of industry in "America's Ruhr"—the Pittsburgh coal-and-steel area—is in the stage of advanced plannink. It is a 130-mile, two-way belt conveyor to link Lake Erie with the Ohio river. A corporation has been formed to build the unique artery, which will be called the Riverlake Belt Conveyor Lines. Cost during the three years it will take in building is estimated at $210,000,000, but, its backers say, it will save firms in the rich industrial area from $20,000,000 to $45,000,000 a year in freight costs. This "railroad of tomorrow" will be the longest belt conveyor in the world. Running side by side in the main line will be two belts, one goins south from Lorain on Lake Erie to a point on the Ohio river near East Liverpool, O., and the other going north between these two terminals. The southbound belt will carry iron ore and limestone from lake ore boats. The northbound belt will carry coal. One-way spurs will connect steel mills in Cleveland and Youngstown with the main line. The purpose of the Riverlake Lines is to reduce the cost of shipping coal and iron ore to steel mills, since railroda freight rates are higher than the estimated belt conveyor charges. H. B. Stewart, Jr., president of the Akron, Canton and Youngstown railroad, who announced the plan, pointed out that the conveyor line would charge, for example, a maximum of $1.23 for moving a ton of coal from the southern terminal to Cleveland, against railroad charges of $2.29 a ton. The electrically-operated belt line would have a total capacity of 52,000,000 tons annually, although it could operate effectively with a minimum cargo volume of 30,000,000 tons—15,000,000 each of coal and iron ore. Stewart predicted that the Riverlake Lines would attract new industry to the region. He said that plans for construction are in the advanced stage, with many belting, construction, transportation and electrical engineers working on the scheme.

Style Guide for today's woman

By Frances Sagaloff at Sage's

You've been browsing through the new spring stocks I'm sure, and all the colors you've seen are most exciting. The new apricot or toast shade is quite breath taking especially when it is worn with kelly green accessories. Grey is still playing a lead in coats and suits. Skipper—that several shades lighter than navy—is most flattering and it is smart to wear it with grey or kelly. Pastels are being shown in aqua, powder and pink—black is important as always. There is a whisper of brown in sheen-gabardine suits and coats. The correct accessories can be had for any outfit this season, because every color is available in shoes and bags.

New 'Dior Look':

Parisian Tailors Fash ions For U. S.

By Epsie Kinard
NEA Fashion Editor

NEW YORK — Christian Dior, the Frenchman, who created the furore remembered as the "New Look" has turned his talents to American ready-to-wear.

The jacket topping the brown-and-white checked woolen dress (left) with a pegged-top skirt, is a black wool bolero with short cuffed sleeves. This jacket has extravagant flare, a "wind-swept" neckline which owes its name to its winding scarf, and a brown lining that repeats the brown check of the dress.

The dress (right) of navy blue flower-print cotton combines a stem-slim skirt with a full jacket, belted in with navy silk fabric. The uneven hemline of the jacket — shorter in front than in the back — is a typical Dior touch, and so is the casual unbuttoned look of the jacket.

Polish Giant Meets Newman In Mat Show

Kenneth Versus Steele to be Opening Event

WRESTLING SCHEDULE

Main Event
Tarzan Kowalski vs. Leo Newman
Poland Montreal, Canada
2 falls out of 3—90 minute limit.

Semi-Windup
Bob Wagner vs. "Lucky" Simonovich
Buffalo, N.Y. Hawaiian Islands
2 falls out of 3—40 minute limit.

Opening Event
Ken Kenneth vs. Jay Steele
Australia Des Moines, Ia.
One fall with a 30-minute limit.

Place: National Guard Armory.
Time: Wednesday, 8:30 p.m.
Referee: Sammy Feeback, Belton, Mo.

Something new in giants in the wrestling ring of Sedalia, comes here Wednesday in Tarzan Kowalski, Poland, who stands six feet six inches and tips the scales at 265 pounds. Fans have been waiting to see this man of the ring and he was secured for Pettis County Post No. 16, American Legion, by Gust Karras, promoter.

Kowalski has been a hard man to get an opponent for, but several of the "shorter" heavyweight boys of the mat sport are willing to take him on for a two out of three fall event. Yeo Newman asked to meet the man in the Sedalia ring, and although twenty pounds lighter and a foot shorter doesn't seem to have Newman worried to any extent.

The main event anyway one looks at it will be something interesting to watch.

"Lucky" Simonovich who hails from the Hawaiian Islands, and who won a following last week is to clash with Bob "Bulldog" Wagner of Buffalo, N.Y., in the semi-windup event. Wagner, a tough wrestler and Simonovich should provide 45 minutes of interesting battling in the ring when they meet.

The blonde from Australia, Ken Kenneth, who meets Jay Steele of Des Moines, Ia., is considered somewhat better than the boy from the tall corn country, but Steele has been waiting his chances to meet Kenneth since his arrival in the Mid-west. This is another event which is as evenly matched as any, Kenneth tipping the scales at 230 pounds and Steele at 220.

Feeback, who was a little cautious last week, got the feel of the ring and is expected to be a little more stern with the wrestlers this week. Feeback who has been under the weather for the past several weeks, worked his first match in several last Wednesday night.

Karras asked that fans having any ideas of what they would like to see in wrestlers or matches tell the Legion sponsors or himself and he will endeavor to supply the demand.

Rabbit Season to Close on March 1

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 12 — (Special)—The Missouri Conservation Commission today reminded all hunters that on March 1 the rabbit season will end and further gunning of the popular cottontail will not be legal again until May 30. The 1949 game regulations, set last September, call for a closed season on this species for the first time the state's history.

Prior to the establishment of the Commission in 1937, rabbits were not even classed as "game." since that time, however, annually there has been a special 10-day closed period on cottontails (and squirrels) immediately preceding the November quail season opening. But this measure was designed primarily to protect the Bobwhite, not the cottontail.

Purpose of this year's regulation is to afford much-needed protection to the rabbit at a time when the population is at a low point in its cycle. The months of March, April and May have been found to be the highest reproductive periods of the cottontail. During this 91-day span, the taking of this species by any means is now prohibited.

Though little is known concerning the causes of fluctuating rabbit population, it has been determined that violent changes have been occurring in Missouri ranges at intervals of about five years.

Hubbard Tigers Win Two Games by a Forfeit

Dalton forfeited two basketball games to the Hubbard Tigers, Friday night, since the team was unable to play that night.

Coach Broaddus said he received a letter Friday morning from Dalton's coach, asserting that they would be unable to play off a Conference game that night, thereby allowing Hubbard to win both an A and B game through forfeiture.

The next home game for the Hubbard Tigers will be at Springfield, Wednesday night.

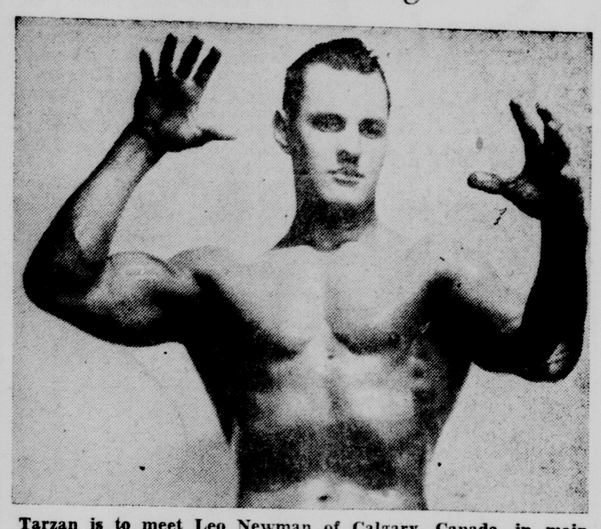

Hannibal is leading the Negro conference with Sedalia running in fourth place. The Tigers have won 5 games and lost 5.

Detroit Tigers Holdout Problem is Dwindling

DETROIT, Feb. 12—(AP)— The Detroit Tigers' dwindling holdout problem appeared centered on the outfield today as righthander Freddie Hutchinson accepted the club's second offer after turning down the first, and two other signed contracts came in by mail.

With Hutchinson, catcher Harvey Riebe and first baseman Tony Lupian in the fold the Tigers have 32 players signed from their springs roster of 39.

Tarzan Kowalski Coming

Tarzan is to meet Leo Newman of Calgary, Canada, in main event on the Pettis County Post No. 16, American Legion, wrestling card at the National Guard Armory Wednesday night. Tarzan hails from Poland and he tips the scales at 265 pounds and the measuring stick places him at six feet six inches tall. This should be something interesting to watch inasmuch as Newman is approximately twenty pounds lighter and about a foot shorter. It will be a "Big" heavyweight against a "Little" heavyweight.

Texas Open In Four-Way Tie for First

Palmer, Snead, Metz And Douglas at End 54-Holes Have 203

By Harold V Ratliff

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 12.—(AP)—Four professionals—Johnny Palmer, Dave Douglas, Sam Snead and Dick Metz—wound up in a tie for first place today at the end of 54 holes in the $10,000 Texas open.

Palmer Had a Chance

Palmer, the Badin, N. C., star, came into the eighteenth with a chance to take the lead but he went one over on the hole and dropped into a deadlock with the other three at 203. He had a one-under-par 70 for the last round.

Douglas, of Wilmington, Del., finished with a five-under-par 66, the same as Snead, who is from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., while Metz, who plays out of Virginia Beach, Va., had a 68.

The par 71, 6,400-yard Brackenridge Park course took a terrific drubbing in today's third round.

Jim Ferrier is Second

A 205 by Jim Ferrier of San Francisco had stood up as the lead until most of the field was in and Snead and Metz came sweeping home with their sub-par rounds. Palmer was the last to finish. Ferrier had laid down a 65—the best round in the field of 64 players today. His 205 landed him next to Snead, Metz, Douglas and Palmer, but in a tie with Jim Turnesa of Briar Cliff, N.Y.

Jim Walkup of Midlothian, Ill., turned in a 67 to bring his total to 206 and take over seventh place.

At 207 were Al Brosch, Garden City, N.Y.; Otto Greiner, Baltimore; Fred Haas, Jr., New Orleans; E. J. Harrison, Little Rock; and Chick Harbert, Northville, Mich. Brosch had a 67, Greiner a 68, Haas a 69, Harrison a 68 and Harbert a 71 today.

Battling Levinsky Former Champ Dies

PHILADELPHIA Feb. 12 — (AP) —Battling Levinsky, who fought 569 bouts in his 19-year ring career and once held the light heavyweight championship, died today at the age of 59.

An illness of several months was aggravated by a recent automobile accident. The funeral will be tomorrow. Surviving are his widow and a daughter.

Levinsky's real name was Barney Lebrowitz.

Managed by Dumb Dan Morgan, Levinsky grabbed the world's light heavy crown in 1916 by beating Jack Dillon in a 10-rounder at Boston. He lost it four years later by a fourth-round knockout at the hands of France's Georges Carpentier in Jersey City, N. J.

The battler continued fighting and in 1922 lost a 12-round decision to Gene Tunney in a bout for the American light heavy title. His last fight was in 1929 when he was knocked out in five rounds by Otto Von Porat at Grand Rapids, Mich.

Spare Time

Fit-in Shots Present Most Worthy Challenge to Bowler's Accuracy

Joe Wilman . . . the feeling of accomplishment on the part of the bowler converting the 5-6 is often preferred to the thrill of a strike.

By Joe Wilman
Former National Match Game Champion

Fit-in shots, the 5-6, 4-5 and 5-6-10, are so called because the ball must be accurately placed between two pins to successfully convert the spare.

In the accompanying diagram, note the position of the feet on the approach. Take a position just to the left of the center, move up the lane in a straight lin to the foul line and aim directly at the empty space between the 5 and 6.

There is little margin for error, actually only slightly more than half an inch on either side, which is cutting it pretty fine.

The 5-6 and similar leaves are anything but easy.

They present, probably more than any other setup, the most worthy challenge to a bowler's accuracy. They demand a perfectly placed shot.

Consequently, the feeling of accomplishment on the part of the bowler who succeeds in converting one of them is often preferred to the thrill of a strike.

Rich Stakes Awarded to State Fair

Stakes Were Raced In Former Years At Milwaukee, Wis.

The Grand Circuit of which the Missouri State Fair was recently named a member, is releasing matters of interest regarding the drivers, horses and racing events of the circuit. It is noted the Sedalia fair has been awarded the rich Trotting Horse Club of America Stakes.

The Missouri State Fair track, one of the finest dirt mile tracks in the country was selected at a meeting of the Grand Circuit last fall, as a new member taking the place of Milwaukee, Wis.

Notes from the Circuit are as follows:

Leading Drivers

Seven of the first 10 leading money winning drivers on the Grand Circuit in 1948 were also listed among the top 10 heat winners on the 'Roaring Grand.' H. M. (Doc) Parshall, 49, Urbana, Ill. third in the money column led the heat winners with 58. Ralph Baldwin, 32, Lafayette, Ind., who topped the money-winners with $144,219 was second in heat standings with 45. Joe O'Brien, 31, Prince Edward Island, Canada, Del Cameron, 29, Harvard, Mass., Franklin Safford, 39, Keene, N. H., Frank Ervin, 43, Aiken, S. C., and Fred Egan, 68, Goshen, N.Y., were the others represented among the top 10 in both columns.

Old Orchard Returns

The July 25-30 week of Grand Circuit racing at the Kite Track at Old Orchard Beach, Me., will mark the return of the 'Roaring Grand' to the New England oval for the first time since 1946. Some $60,000 in early closing events are scheduled for the week of Grand Circuit competition, including a $5,000 event for two-year-old trotters.

Sedalia Gets Stakes

The rich Trotting Horse Club of America stakes for two and three year old trotters and pacers have been awarded to the track at Sedalia, Mo., a newcomer to the Grand Circuit in 1949. The stakes were raced in former years at Milwaukee, Wis., which was dropped from the major league of harness racing this year.

Little Brown Jug

The Little Brown Jug, premier pacing classic for three-year-olds, raced annually on the Grand Circuit at Delaware, O., will be worth more than $50,000 in 1949 for the first time in the four year history of the event. Fifty-six nominees were kept eligible when the January 1, 1949 payment came due and now only five starters will be necessary to boost the purse to $52,000. Date for the rich race is Sept. 22.

Busy Trainers

Franklin Safford, of Keene, N. H., and Frank Ervin, Aiken, S. C., are the busiest Grand Circuit trainers in southern trotting and pacing camps. At Pinehurst, N. C., Safford is preparing 39 horses for the races including 18 two-year-olds. Ervin meanwhile has harness on 19 juveniles in a string of 32 Standardbreds at the Aiken mile track.

(Frank Ervin is a former Sedalian and well known horseman of this city. Ervin will be remembered as training horses and driving them on the mile track of the Missouri State Fair several years ago).

At least seven other major league trainers are preparing 10 or more two-year-olds for the 1949 racing wars. Tom Berry has 13 at the Orlando, Fla., mile track while Harry Fitzpatrick and the Ben and Gib White team each have 10 at the half-mile oval in the same city. Joe Hylan has 11 at Pinehurst and Harry Whitney has the same number at Aiken.

All In A Name

The Nassau Trotting Association at Roosevelt Raceway, Westbury, L. I., has carded four rich events, named after outstanding harness horses, for their Aug. 1-6 week of Grand Circuit racing. All valued at $10,000 they are: The Knight Dream for two-year-old pacers; The Dean Hanover for two-year-old trotters; the Adois for three-year-old pacers and the Volomite for three-year-old trotters.

Sport Scraps

By D. KELLY SCRUTON

THE past week I had the pleasure of reading about two former Sedalians who are well known trainers of harness racing horses—W. B. "Bill" Taylor, Ponona, California and Frank Ervin of Aiken, S. C. Stories of their stables were carried in The Harness Horse. The magazine is for those who follow harness horse racing and breeding and the stories of these two former Sedalians, are very interesting.

The "Fabulous" Full Bloom, is the title of the story in connection with a horse which Mr. Taylor bought for the James G. Eddy, of Tacoma and Seattle, Washington and Taylor stable. It goes back to 1945 when Mr. Taylor saw a horse at Batavia Downs, when he saw a horse which seemed to have the unhappy faculty of doing everything incorrectly. However, while watching the horse he noticed that when she did strike a square trot she could really fly.

Overtures were made and Mr. Taylor obtained the horse at a reported price of $2,000. That being a high price for a five-year-old mare with a record of only 2:13 and the knowing ones shook their heads, quite sure the canny Taylor had taken on a lemon of the first water. Mr. Taylor in his training resorted to spare the whop and the harsh words", feeling that a firm and kind treatment would do more than anything else to win her over. His efforts were rewarded.

Last August 28 at the mile oval, Stockton, California, Full Bloom sprinted around in 1:58 4/5 a record time. It was the first time that a West Coast horse had broken 2.00.

The story also carries remarks of other horses in the Messrs Eddy-Taylor stable. And also pays tribute to the owner-trainer combination of the two men which states it has been conducted with a system and smoothness as that which has brought a pleasant and profitable relationship.

The story in one part says, "Full Bloom has endeared herself to Mr. Taylor in many ways, but two incidents stand out in his mind. This fall he was hospitalized for a couple of months and the first day he was out he visited the track. The mare was brought out to his car and immediately started to nuzzling him as if to say, 'Hello old pal, glad to see you back'. Another was while driving her in a race at Sacramento, one of her lines caught under the safety start leaving only one rein free. Not even the other drivers knew there was anything wrong as she went her mile as usual and finished second. Had she not been well behaved she might have caused a serious accident, a pretty good indication of just how well mannered she now is."

Many old timers remember Mr. Taylor and family when they resided here from around 1907 to 1927. His interests then centered around Sedalia where he conducted a public stable, a sales company, and in addition bred a number of good performers. The Taylors left here for Topeka, Kansas, and early 30's moved to California.

THE story in which Mr. Ervin figures is on "Good Time 2, 2:02 1/5." It tells of the training Good Time received from Mr. Ervin at Aiken, S. C., and has since been a consistent winner. A picture in connection with the story shows Good Time with Mr. Ervin driving, and Mrs. Ervin holding a beautiful trophy awarded for winning the Fox Pacing Stake, $32,159.37 with Mrs. Frank P. Fox, and Leo C. McNamara, the breeder of the horse.

The story also relates other races the fine horse has won.

It is likely that Ervin may return to the Grand Circuit and will be among the fine harness horse drivers to appear at the Missouri State Fair this year.

The Missouri State Fair has been named as a member of the Grand Circuit replacing Milwaukee, Wis.

IN the Grand Circuit newspaper releases Mr. Ervin gave a statement regarding high-priced yearlings, now in training as two-year-olds, bought by Grand Circuit stables, are reported doing well by their reinsmen.

"Frank Ervin, at Aiken, S. C., reports that Sampson Hanover, a $13,500 trotting colt looks very good in early training as do Double Play, ($14,000) a pacing colt and Clipper Hanover, a $9,000 trotter.

"At the same track Harry Whitney, the veteran Grand Circuit trotting trainer, makes it known that Mrs. F. Ambrose Clarke, of Cooperstown, N. Y., has made several good buys in her first venture into the harness horse sport. Her colt Mite Again $25,000) and fillies Kimberly Maid, ($12,000) and Gay Sonata, ($16,000) are training very well for this early in the season, according to Whitney."

Nebraska Beats Kansas 49 to 39

LAWRENCE, Kas., Feb 12—(AP) —The Nebraska Cornhuskers continued as pace-setters in the Big Seven Conference basketball race by defeating the Kansas Jayhawks 49-39 tonight. It was the fifth win against no defeats for the Nebraskans.

Gunning for their first Conference championship since 1937, the Cornhuskers moved to a 27-21 halftime lead after an early scoring blast and were in complete control throughout the game.

It was the fifth loss against two victories for Kansas, which was on the short end of a 52-34 count with Nebraska at Lincoln last month.

Kansas went without a field goal for a five minute span in the second half during which time the Cornhuskers clinched the game with a 44-28 lead. Towering Bus Whitehead, who led the scoring with 19 points, paced the Nebraska drive.

Kansas got off to a quick lead as Gene Peterson hit a fielder from medium range and Bill Sapp added a free throw. Nebraska went ahead at 6-5, however, and again at 9-8 and stayed on top to the finish.

Claude Houchin, Kansas guard, led the Jayhawks with 13 points.

Nebraska will meet its most serious rival for the championship the Oklahoma Sooners (5-1) at Norman, Okla., Monday.

Trout Season Opens at Dawn On March 1

All Reservations for Accommodations At All State Parks

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 12—(Special) — When Missouri's traditional and colorful trout season gets underway at dawn on March 1, an estimated 1,000 eager and dauntless anglers are expected to line the banks of spring-fed streams in each of three state parks—Bennett Springs, Montauk, and Roaring River—for their first chance this year to creel the fighting "rainbow."

Trout Stock Improved

Dr. G. B. Herndon, chief of the Conservation Commission's fisheries section, announced today that the stock of trout fish has been improved at all stations and he predicts that the 1949 season will be excellent, providing weather and water conditions are favorable. Low water conditions in all trout streams have been relieved by the January precipitation.

A construction crew has devoted the entire winter to work at Bennett Springs, and by March 1 major repairs on the dam there will be completed, as well as stream improvement structures on the lower portion of the spring branch. In addition, an extension of the restricted fly fishing area in this park has been made.

"All of these things should aid in relieving the problem of angler concentration at Bennett Springs," said Dr. Herndon.

Roaring River Repairs

Some repair work has been done at Roaring River on the stream improvement structures, and the new auxiliary hatchery and storage building has been completed. At Montauk, a new hatchery building now under construction will be finished early in the '49 trout fishing season.

In state park waters, a daily fee of fifty cents for a "trout bag" is required of each angler, in addition to the regular state fishing permit. Although the general season on trout does not open until May 30, the March 1 opening also applies to certain trout management areas. These are: a part of Current River below Monatuk; Greer Springs branch and a part of Eleven Point River in Oregon County; Meramec Spring branch in Phelps County; Roubidoux Spring branch in Pulaski county; and a portion of Indian Creek in Newton and McDonald counties.

The State Park Board reports that all reservations for accommodations within the parks for the trout season's opening have long been gone, and the usual flood of tents and trailers is anticipated for the event. As crowds are generally in excess of the tags sold, regardless of weather, non-fishing accompanists will probably increase the total attendance to 2,000 persons at each park.

Smith-Cotton Drubs Kemper Friday Night

Tigers Score 53-28 For Second Defeat Over Kemper

The Smith-Cotton Tigers walloped Kemper for the second time this season by a score of 53-28 in a conference game played at Kemper, Friday night.

Kemper was stopped on 28 points once before when the Tigers defeated them 70-28 last January.

Both teams got off to a slow pace, and it wasn't until the final half that shooting sprees started.

Kemper made the first basket, but was soon overtaken by two points when the first quarter ended. Six and four points for each team were all they managed to get in the starting quarter.

In the second quarter, the Tigers took the lead and never lost it throughout the remainder of the tilt. The intermission score leaned for the Tigers, 22-15.

High Point Players

Five baskets from the field and 7 free throws helped shove Sedalia higher in the lead when Tipton started his deadly shots, crediting him with making 27 of the Tiger points.

Faver was nigh shooter for Kemper with 4 field goals and a free throw.

The Tigers are still in the lead for the conference championship with only one conference game left and that is with Columbia, to be played here February 18.

Several conference games were postponed during the severe weather, and some of these games will be made up after the sub-regional tournament which starts February 25.

Tuesday night the Tigers will journey to Warrensburg to meet College High, in a non-conference game.

Pirates Give Meyer First 3-Year Contract

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 12— (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates today tore up Manager Billy Meyer's old contract and gave him a new one for the next three years with a substantial but undisclosed salary increase.

The owners of the National league club said it was a reward for his good work in bringing the Bucs from last place to fourth in his first year in the managerial post and also an expression of their confidence.

Meyer was reported to be the first pilot in Pirate history to be given a three-year contract.

Coming to the Bucs from the Kansas City Blues in the American Association, Meyer brought a reputation as a star-maker for the New York Yankees.

Polly Riley Wins Women's Tourney

PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 12—(AP)—Peggy Kirk won the Palm Beach women's golf tournament today, defeating Polly Riley 2 and 1 just as she did a year ago.

The opponents, the tournament and the score were the came in both years, and in addition Miss Riley, of Findlay, Ohio, became the second defending champion to win the 24-year history of the tournament. Jane Crum Covington of Orangeburg, S. C., performed the feat in 1944 and 1945.

Miss Kirk's accuracy on the putting greens told the story of her superiority over Miss Riley, of Forth Worth, Texas.

Transit Strike Causes Traffic Jams

Several hours after 11,000 members of the CIO Transport Workers union went on strike in Philadelphia, more than three million bus, subway and trolly riders were trying to gain transportation by auto and other means. Tiny New Lens For Eyes Held in Place by Tears

By Dorothy Salisbury
NEA Staff Correspondent

LOS ANGELES—(NEA)—The lucite that made the bubble turrets of combat aircraft is now being turned into a sort of bubble turret for the poor-eyed public.

It is the material from which tiny new plastic lenses, covering only the cornea of the eye, are being produced. Although they were considered in the stage of "active research" until a few weeks age, the corneal lenses may some day make contact lenses obsolete.

The lens caps only the colored part of the eye, and is held in place by natural capillary attraction. There is no flange to fit the eyeball, and no auxiliary fluid needed.

Nor do they flip out when a hearty slap on the back or a sly wink. Tears, just tears, hold them in. They are visible only to the expert.

Many opthalmologists who have seen them say the new corneal lenses promise the most nearly perfect possible physical correction.

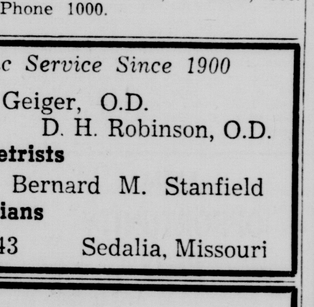

Kevin Tuohy, 30-year-old Los Angeles inventor who has worn his miniature contacts for more than a year, conceived the idea little more than two years ago. His wife, Marta, has discarded her own glasses to go along with her husband. They both see 20-20 (with their new "eyes") and, to date, have no complaints. They even wear them in swimming.

So far, Touhy says, 750 cases are wearing the corneal lenses successfully, all of them still under close observation.

Most of these have been young persons—18 to 35 years—who disliked wearing glasses enough to go through the process of a fitting.

Prescription is made from ophthalmometric measurement. The first time anything comes in contact with the eye is when the lenses are tried on. The corneals are worn only 20 minutes the first day, with daily increases until in about a month they may be worn all day.

An obvious drawback, of course, is the cost. In comparison to the conventional correction, the new lenses are expensive. Until manufacture becomes more production-line and the highly specialized training necessary for doctors to prescribe and fit becomes more widespread, the average myopic will have to dig somewhat deep to afford them.

Corneal lenses (center) are smaller than contact lenses (right) and fit in a lipstick-sized box when not in use.

Barring possibility of losing them, because of their diminutive size, the lenses are expected to last about five years for most wearers. Tiny scratches or blemishes from handling are compensated by a fill of tears.

Intensive experimentation and research is continuing at the Los Angeles College of Medical Evangelists, of which Tuohy has been a staff member since 1940, and at the White Memorial Hospital of Los Angeles, which has also figured prominently in the development.

Inventor Kevin Tuohy peers through a sheet of lucite from which he makes the corneal lenses he also wears in his eyes.

Sheriff Guilty in Whisky Ring

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Feb. 12—(AP)—Sheriff Eddie J. Briggs was found guilty Friday by a Federal court jury in the operation of a wholesale whisky ring in Muskogee county.

Similar verdicts of guilty were returned against two other defendants—Fred Payne, 43, a night club operator and Harley Greenwood, 38, a jailer under Briggs at one time.

Three remaining co-defendants were acquitted by the jury, which was out for five hours. They are Velta Peters, 22, an employe of Payne; his cousin, Guy Payne, 26; and Gene Andrews, 33, Briggs' civil deputy.

All were charged with conspiring to violate U. S. internal revenue laws.

May Lose Foot Frozen in Escape

TRENTON, Mo., Feb. 12—(AP)—Benjamin Stewart of Trenton was sentenced to five years in prison Friday on a charge of first degree robbery but physicians say he is in danger of a greater loss as a result of his troubles.

Stewart escaped from the Grundy county jail Jan. 29 where he was being held awaiting today's court appearance. He lost a shoe during his flight over the snow and ice covered ground and when recaptured several hours later his foot was frozen. Doctors say they may have to amputate.

Small Fire at The State Prison

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Feb. 12—(AP)—A small fire drove some 150 Missouri penitentiary trusties into the cold Friday night.

Prison officials said an extra contingent of guards held the prisoners under close surveillance while Jefferson City firemen put out the fire in a moving picture projector.

Officials believed the convict operating the projector was smoking a cigarette while he worked, and the film ignited.

The men assigned to jobs outside the prison walls were housed in "L" hall. There are no barriers around the building.

The modern design for '49

Why not get all this in YOUR new car?

Owners of low-built Hudsons have it!

Owners of New Hudsons are seeing for themselves that the lower a car can be built, the more graceful its lines can be made, the better it will ride, the more surely it will handle, and the safer it will be!

Because people who drive Hudsons "step down" into an exciting, new kind of automobile, they enjoy more head room and roomier seats—in an automobile only five feet from ground to top—than in any mass-produced car built today! Yet Hudson has ample road clearance!

But roominess is only one of the wonderful advantages that go with the automobile that is so far ahead it's a protected investment in motor car value.

Here are more:

Authentic beauty—the "step down" principle is so basically right it frees designers of the need for makeshift styling, enables Hudson to achieve pleasing proportions, symmetric, free-flowing lines.

A hug-the-road ride, and a smooth, steady way of going, because Hudson has the lowest center of gravity in any American stock car!

Performance? You bet! Hudson's all-new, high-compression Super-Six engine—or the masterful Super-Eight, get every chance to perform at their brilliant best, because this car is so low-built, so streamlined!

A new measure of safety, because you ride completely encircled by the sturdy, box-section steel girders of Hudson's Monobilt body-and-frame.*

Mrs. Siegel, 56, a former beauty shop operator, was in the courtroom on a stretcher. She testified she suffered a fractured spine that left her paralyzed.

Nice Donation From County to Hungry People

$2,531.42 in Cash To Buy Food for Overseas Assistance

The appeal of the Christian Rural Overseas Program brought a cash donation of $2,531.42 in Pettis county, according to Irwin Raut, county chairman. The CROP was organized for the purpose of raising funds to help feed the hungry people of the world.

Raut said that the committee was pleased with the results, the splendid work of the solicitors and the response of the people of the county.

The original suggestion of the state office was the contribution of at least five bushels of corn from each of the farmers of the county, but after considering the problem of gathering the corn at a central place and the possibility of the corn not being dry enough for shipment the plans were changed and instead the committee asked for cash donations. The money will be used to purchase corn or some other needed commodity at a point of final shipment.

Estimate of Amount

Oscar DeWolf, of the Farmers Home Administration, has estimated that at the current price for corn Pettis county supplied enough corn meal to furnish one-half pound per week for a year to a population larger than Sedalia.

There were approximately 600 donors. While most of the contributions came from the rural areas Raut gives special credit to the St. Paul's Lutheran church in Sedalia, of which Rev. William Strickert is pastor. Practically every family in the church made a contribution.

The distribution will be made overseas through the various church agencies which were designated by the donors, and will be given to needy persons direct, regardless of race, nationality or religious affiliations. The church distributing agencies do not conflict with or duplicate any government agency.

The local executive committee for the Christian Rural Overseas Program is James Harvey, Roy I. Coplen, Mrs. George Fichter, Clarence Carter, treasurer, Irwin Raut, chairman. The county-wide committee was composed of representatives from the various townships, who in turn were assisted by many volunteer solicitors.

Plans were made for a Valentine party, which will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Seigfried on February 18th.

Gen. "Ike" Recalled To Service

Eisenhower to be Temporarily the Chairman of Joint Chiefs of Staff

By Roger D. Greene

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12—(AP)—President Truman disclosed Friday that General Dwight D. Eisenhower has been recalled to the nation's service as chairman of the joint chiefs of staff.

The White House gave no inkling of any new critical turn in world events in connection with the appointment.

Mr. Truman's announcement said Gen. Eisenhower had been assigned "temporarily" to his new role and it was planned that it would be of "relatively" short duration."

The joint chiefs of staff are the chiefs of staff of the Army, Navy, Air Force and the chief of staff to the President.

Eisenhower, a five-star general who cammanded American armies in Europe in World War II, left the service early in 1948 to become President of Columbia university.

Officials said one of Eisenhower's chief tasks will undoubtedly center on ending the old "feud" among the Army, Navy and Air Force which has been variously described by congressmen as petty jealousy and healthy competition.

In its more recent phases, the old inter-service row has developed chiefly between the Navy and the Air Force over how great a part each would play in aerial warfare.

Eisenhower undoubtedly will also deal with the military aid program for the western European nations in bulwarking their defenses against Communism. How much military equipment the U. S. can spare without impairing its own strength will be one of the prime topics, officials indicated.

Look To Coordination

The return of Eisenhower to the military scene drew comments of approval on capitol hill.

Senator Smith (R-NJ) told newsmen: "I'm delighted to hear it. It brings a coordinating factor there that is needed. General Eisenhower has the experience in the military field that no one else has."

Senator Gurney (R-SD), past chairman of the Senate armed services committee, said: "I think it is a fine move."

The White House announcement was made through Eben A. Ayers, assistant presidential press secretary, who called newsmen and told them:

"The President announced today that arrangements have been completed wherby Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has been assigned temporarily as principal military adviser and consultant to the commander in chief (President Truman) and Secretary of Defense (Forrestal).

"In this capacity, he will sit in the meetings of the joint chiefs of staff and act as presiding officer.

"Out of consideration for General Eisenhower's other commitments, it is planned that this arrangement will be of relatively short duration."

Columbia university announced on Monday night that it had given Eisenhower temporary leave to help the national military establishment for a period of several weeks.

Fleet Admiral William D. Leahy, chief of staff to the President and a member of the joint chiefs of staff, is now in Key West, Fla., recuperating from a major operation. There has been an understanding Leahy wants to retire soon.

However, the White House did not indicate any connection between Eisenhower's temporary assignment and Leahy's plans to retire. Ayers, in his announcement, stressed that Eisenhower's designation was a temporary one.

10 Years, $3 Billion, Give U. S. the World Atom Lead

No Nation Can Catch Up If We Keep Going at Our Present Pace

From the air, one of the nation's first atomic energy plants at Oak Ridge, Tenn., sprawls out in the midst of rolling hills. This is the first picture of the plant to be released since its [illegible] community of 36,000 surrounds it.

Just completed at Brookhaven National Laboratory on Long Island, this is a model of the proton synchrotron, one of the government's greatest research projects in nuclear physics thus far.

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—At a cost of three billion dollars, spent over a period of 10 years, this country has achieved so great a lead in the production of atomic energy that no nation can overtake us—if we maintain our present pace.

That is the highlight of the Atomic Energy Commission's report to Congress, just off the press.

The phenomenon of nuclear fission—the fact that an atom can be "split," and in the process it will release tremendous energy—was first confirmed in this country during the last week in January, 1939.

Since that time, the Commission reports, we have put into operation 30 plants in 25 different locations. Fissionable materials are being produced in 15 states. Two communities, with combined population of more than 50,000 persons, have been built from the ground up to house and sustain workers in the major atomic plants.

The big achievement of the past was an expansion program that greatly increased production capacity and cut operating costs. Thus, for the first time since this country began working on atomic energy, the AEC proudly reports, "the production chain has been raised to sound operating levels."

Achieving this goal in 1948 involved a history-making building program. The report states:

"By the spring of 1948, the building of these new major facilities for the production of fissionable materials had become the greatest single construction program in American peacetime history. Work which eventually would cost more than $700,000,000 was under way. It centered at the Hanford (Wash.) plutonium works."

One of the newest research projects being undertaken by the government in the field of nuclear physics, the report reveals, is the construction of a new machine called the proton synchrotron at the Brookhaven National Laboratory near Patchogue, Long Island, N. Y. An electro-nuclear accelerator which will increase the speed of atomic particles to energies about seven times as great as any ever produced in a laboratory to date, it will whirl protons at the rate of three billion electron volts, a speed sufficient to generate artificial cosmic rays. It will be used to obtain more basic information about the structure of the atom.

The synchrotron, which will be operating late in 1949, is 75 feet across and had to be built 10 feet under the ground, so penetrating are the particles it generates.

Another major project under construction is a sort of boot camp for atomic energy physicists. It is called the Argonne National Laboratory and is located just outside of Chicago. Students are accepted at this lab from surrounding universities, and must qualify there for advanced work in research and for radioactive material production.

Los Alamos, New Mexico, one of the first atomic energy plants in the U. S., was greatly expanded during the past year according to the report. And the Los Alamos community where the atomic workers live has been greatly enlarged. Last year more than 1000 homes and apartments were completed and a huge permanent trailer camp built. Also added to the city was a new community center, consisting of a bank, theater, recreation hall, shops, offices for newspapers and radio stations, and space for welfare activities.

Last year's work on Oak Ridge, Tenn., another of the first installations, consisted of modernizing the plants and the city, which now has a population of 36,000 persons.

The AEC doesn't hesitate to criticize its own progress in the report. It says:

"There are a number of phases of the operations where the rate of progress has not been satisfactory. These include: Adequate budget and accounting controls; cooperation and exchange of information with industrial firms not actually participating in the program; personnel security clearance procedures; recruitment of scientific and technical talent; policies, procedures and operations in both the issuance and control of information. In addition, work on the solution of a number of research and development problems referred to in the report has not progressed as rapidly as it can and will."

Truman and Churchill to Speak

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12—(AP)—President Truman and Winston Churchill are going to speak on consecutive days at the same scholastic gathering at Cambridge, Mass.

The White House doesn't know yet, however, what chance the two will have to see each other.

Britain's wartime prime minister has agreed to address the mid-century convocation on the social implications of scientific progress on March 31. Mr. Truman accepted an invitation to make a talk to the same group April 1. The affair will be held at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Then on April 26, the White House said, the President will go back to Massachusetts to receive an honorary degree and make a speech at Boston college.

Plains Storms May Spare Your Beef

Large U. S. Cattle Population Plus Better Summer Feed Feed Prospects May Ballance Storm Losses, Experts Feel

Saved from freezing and starvation, these storm-weakened cattle are being driven to safety down an icy road in northern Nebraska. Emergency relief efforts are saving many cattle and sheep from death in the western storms—and thus saving steaks and chops that might otherwise be missing from your dinner table.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK — (NEA) — The worst winter in the history of the western cattle country may not take very many steaks and chops off our dinner table after all.

As storm after storm piled up on the ranges, leaving livestock starved and snowbound, housewives across the nation began to fear that the long-awaited drop in meat prices would be wiped out by the blizzards.

But while the department of Agriculture reports from field men in the stricken areas are not expected for another three weeks, NEA service found that key men in the meat industry are less worried than the housewives over the day-to-day isolated reports

A quick survey disclosed these more optimistic views of the long-range picture:

1. Our total cattle production of 80 million is so large that even spectacular losses in scattered areas will not materially affect the over-all supply.

2. A large number of cattle are not on the storm beaten ranges, but safe in feeding lots in the Middle West. Those now on the range are lean "unfinished" cattle not scheduled to come to market until late fall.

3. Emergency relief efforts are saving many cattle and sheep which otherwise might have been lost. In addition, breeders expect to find many cattle and sheep safe in protecting ravines and canyons.

4. The heavy snows will mean good "rain-seed" conditions next summer, which spell not only better grazing and fatter cattle, but also the possibility of another bumper wheat crop.

The sheep picture is not as good. The bacon-pork-ham supply is unaffected since hog producing is concentrated in areas not by the storms.

Typical of the experts' reaction is that of Eugene G. Cchulz, commissioner of markets in New York City, which needs 30 million pounds of meat a week.

When the supply threatens to drop below that figure, it's his job to start worrying. "As to lamb prices in late summer and early fall," he said, "there may be some upset.. But I do not expect any important upset in the beef picture at that time. So we aren't worrying.

T. C. Smith, Swift & Co. vice president in charge of beef, veal and lamb, did not foresee any immediate effect on meat supplies except in some localities where livestock marketing may be delayed by blocked roads.

He added that the damage to breeding stock from exposure and starvation may be more serious than actual death losses. Both cows and ewes, he explained, will come out of the storm in weakened condition, which may reduce calf and lamb crops.

F. W. Specht, president of Armour & Co., said that 1949's meat supply "is expected to equal or exceed that of 1948" despite his belief that storm losses of livestock will doubtless be regretably large."

Experts explained that most of the cattle on the snowbound ranges are about two years old. It takes from three to four years from birth to butcher, except in some southern states where younger meat is in demand. Thus breeders hope that by the time any loss of these two-year-olds would be felt, it will be balanced by a boost in the present cattle population, either in numbers or in weight, as the result of good grazing and feeding conditions.

Plan to Make Some One Happy

The regular meeting of the South Abell Club was held at the home of Mrs. Charley Meyers, with Mrs. Marion Meyers as assistant hostess.

At noon a contributive dinner was served.

The president, Mrs. E. E. Barrick called the meeting to order by singing club songs and repeating the club collect.

Mrs. Marion Meyers read the scripture lesson. Sixteen members answered roll call, "Some Way I Plan to Make Some One Happy This Year." A donation of two dollars and fifteen cents was given to the March of Dimes Campaign.

Miss Esther Dilsaver gave a talk on Bangs disease and a demonstration on milk pasteurization.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Raymond Chancy, with Mrs. Mason Riley as assistant hostess.

Elegant-Looking Cake

An elegant-looking cake like this can be the making of a cook—especially if it tastes as good as it looks! It's sure to, though, because it's a burns sugar cake from top to bottom, frosting and cake alike. Luscious English walnut meats trim the top.

Burnt sugar cake speaks of festive occasions and just plain good eating. Take it to your church pot-luck, your club bake sale, or feed it to the family at home—it makes no difference where you serve it, for it will hold its own in any competition.

Burnt sugar cake is often baked in layers with the icing in between the layers and over the whole cake, but another good way to bake it is in a rectangular "utility" pan (so-called because it is appropriate for so many different uses). When baked in this way, you may leave it in the pan and frost just the top, then cut only such pieces as you need each time you serve it. That way the cake will stay moist and fresh longer, though it will stay that way longer than most cakes anyway because it is made with lard. Left in the pan it is much easier to carry the cake if you are planning to serve it away from home.

Or you may turn your rectangular cake out on your favorite platter and frost the sides as well as the top. An outline of English walnuts around the edge of the cake adds to the flavor as well as the appearance.

Burnt Sugar Cake

3 cups sifted cake flour
1 tablespoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
¾ cup lard
1½ cups sugar
3 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 tablespoons burnt sugar sirup
1 cup milk

Line the bottom of a pan (8x12 inches) with wax paper. Sift together cake flour, baking powder and salt. Cream lard. Continue creaming, gradually adding sugar. Add eggs, one at a time, beating after each addition. Add vanilla and burnt sugar sirup to milk. Add sifted dry ingredients to creamed mixture alternately with liquid. Pour batter into pan. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 50 to 55 minutes. When cool, cover with Burnt Sugar Icing.

Burnt Sugar Sirup

1 cup sugar
¾ cup water

Melt sugar in frying- pan until it foams, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add water slowly. Cook until bubbles in sirup are size of a dime. Store in a covered container in the refrigerator until ready to use.

Burnt Sugar Icing

2 cups confectioner's sugar
4 tablespoons butter
5 tablespoons Burnt Sugar Sirup
3 tablespoons milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Combine sugar and butter. Beat thoroughly. Add sirup, milk and vanilla. Beat until well blended.

POP Goes the QUEEN

THE STORY: John Henry and Sin Conover, quiz show winners of an expense-paid week at a swank desert resort, are visited by an armed man as they dress in their cottage for dinner. This man, Homer Anglin, leaves, after saying he made a mistake. Dining at an exclusive cafe where waiters are in Arab costume, Johnny receives a Queen of Diamonds on which is written "Your deal." While searching for the waiter who left the card in place of a check, Mr. Barselou, the owner, takes them into the kitchen. The door to the alley opens, there's a blast of a gun and a man stumbles into Johnny's arms. It's Anglin, the man who visited the cottage. Anglin dies muttering to Johnny: "You already got it."

"DEAD all right," Lieutenant Lay said and got up from beside the body. Barselou, the Conovers, the cooks behind their now-cool stoves and two tan-uniformed policemen waited for him to work a miracle.

The second in command of the Azure police department stood with his bowed legs apart and scowled at the wall. He was a lanky man in his middle thirties with a horse face and arms too long for his body. He needed a shave.

The scowl swung on John Henry. "Mr. Barselou seems to have the idea that you knew him." Conover shook his head and kept silent. Sin still leaned against him, but she wasn't about to be sick any more and her tilted eyes were sharply alive. "Doesn't matter," Lay rasped. "He's not hard to identify. Name's Anglin." He kept watching John Henry.

When the scowl began to fade, the young man thought it was safe to ask, "Who was he?"

"Oh, he hung around town a lot. Did lots of jobs. Been lots of different things. Prospected some." He glanced at the sand that had spilled on the immaculate floor from Anglin's clothes. "Was a guide once in a while. Used to deal faro over in Las Vegas—or so I heard."

"Lieutenant—" Barselou interposed from where he was fiddling with a meat grinder. "Maybe that has something to do with the murder. A man like that is bound to make enemies."

"Maybe. A grudge killing. Some bozo he's double-crossed — or cheated at cards. Then again, Mr. Barselou—" Lay gave a macabre grin "—this killing's right up your alley."

Barselou didn't smile.

* * *

SIN said in a very small voice, "Whoever it was, he was pretty persistent."

"I don't get you, Mrs. Conover."

"Well, he was shot in the shoulder too, wasn't he?"

"Doesn't mean anything. Most guys with guns can't shoot worth beans, anyway."

"What's Mr. Anglin been doing recently?" John Henry asked.

"Glad to have the visitors take an interest in our crimes," Lay muttered sarcastically. Then he considered. "Not sure that I know. I can't keep track of everybody in town. We didn't have any reason to keep tabs on Anglin—until now." He knelt by the dead man again.

Barselou gave the meat grinder a whirl. "Just a suggestion, Lieutenant, but a careful search of his clothes—"

Lay, already rummaging through the dead man's pockets, didn't bother to look up and Barselou let his voice trail off. He eased forward to stand near the body watchfully. The black automatic, familiar to the Conovers, came out first, to be placed on the shiny linoleum. A dirty handkerchief, a small compass and a notebook, pocket-size and with all the pages blank, joined the gun on the floor. After a thorough search, the pile also included a few coins, a half-empty pack of cigarets, a box of pocket matches and a wallet. The wallet contained a driver's license made out to Homer Anglin, $19 in currency, a Social Security card and nothing else.

* * *

LAY got up and rubbed his knees, Barselou bit his lip and tapped the police officer's shoulder, drawing him to one side.

Sin sighed. "Do you think we can go now?"

"Shouldn't be long now," her husband said off-hand. He was trying to read lips across the kitchen.

"Why don't you ask the lieutenant if it's okay? I need some fresh air pretty bad."

Lieutenant Lay came ambling back. "Say, Conover, when you told your story why didn't you tell me that Anglin said something to you before he died?"

"He didn't."

"Barselou says—"

John Henry's temper flared. "Barselou's got a lot of ideas. Why doesn't he have one about that waiter of his that started us on the whole thing?"

The police ambulance clanged outside in the alley, its siren dying to a groan. John Henry guessed the expression on Lay's ugly face was supposed to pass as a grin. At least, after the noise had died down, Lay said, "Oh, we all have ideas." And he let the Conovers go.

As they walked down the alley, John Henry said, "Whew!"

Sin slid her hand under his arm and agreed. "Was that the adventure you wanted with your dinner?"

"No," he admitted morosely. "I didn't want to see anybody get hurt. It never seems that bad in stories. When people in stories stumble into a murder, they always come up with a clue."

Sin moved closer to him and nodded silently.

"Darn!" said John Henry.

"What's the trouble, honey?"

"Tripped."

He kicked some soft trash aside and they walked on.

The soft trash was an Arab burnoose. Lieutenant Lay didn't find it, either.

Light Experts Answer Fluorescent Questions

Pink-painted alcove for sewing and planning is lighted for both tasks. For sewing, fluorescent ceiling fixture plus strips concealed by scalloped cornice turn on bright illumination with minimum of shadows on work surface. Cornice lights are all that are needed for writing at small desk.

By Kay Sherwood
NEA Staff Writer

The use of fluorescent lighting in the home is ringed with a big question mark by many women who are drawing up spring redecorating plans. The following answers to frequently asked questions about this type of lighting are based on interviews with lighting engineers.

Q. Which sources gives off more light — fluorescent or incandescent?

A. A fluorescent lamp produces about two and a half times as much light as an incandescent bulb of comparable size.

Q. Is it harmful to the eyes to mix the two types of light in one room?

A. No. A mixture usually gives a room better illumination. Concealed fluorescent strips provide general illumination and incandescent lamps serve as accent lighting for specific visual tasks.

Q. Do fluorescent fixtures have to be permanently installed?

A. Not necessarily. There are portable fixtures which can be attached to a wall and plugged into any electric outlet. Some table and floor lamps are equipped with fluorescent light.

Q. How about ceiling fixtures or cove or valance concealed lighting?

A. Any lighting installation that requires cutting into wall surfaces to connect wires in a household electric system should be done by a competent electrician. Fluorescent fixtures do not require any complicated rewiring of an electric system.

Q. Are fluorescent fixtures expensive?

A. Fluorescent fixtures are usually more expensive than average unadorned incandescent fixtures. Fluorescent lamps for replacements cost more but will burn four or five times longer than incandescent bulbs.

Q. Can I replace a burned out lamp myself?

A. Certainly. The lamp fits into slots in the holder and can be twisted in or out. Starter mechanisms are as easy to replace.

Q. What causes fluorescent lamps to flicker?

A. A pronounced flicker usually means lamp or starter is wearing out and should be replaced.

Q. What are the practical advantages of fluorescent light?

A. Fluorescent lamps are low in surface brightness which results in little direct or reflected glare. Even distribution of light over a wider area, plus efficient use of current, makes a "cool" light. These qualities enhance its value in homework centers.

Q. What are decorative uses for fluorescent light?

A. Fluorescence plays up colors and textures of furnishings. It provides "plus" illumination to make a room more cheerful. Lamps range in length from a few inches to several feet which permits flexible arrangements. Short strips may be recessed in niches or under shelves. Longer strips may be mounted above windows or along ceiling coves.

Q. Does all fluorescent cast a blue light?

A. No. Five standard degrees of fluorescent "whiteness" range from daylight or bluish tones to soft pinkinsh whites to warm tones similar to incandescence.

Q. How do I choose the color?

A. In general, warm toned lights can be used with the widest variety of colors and will blend well with incandescence. Color tests also indicate that pink and some tan shades look clearest under soft white lights, green and blue shades under daylight type.

Modern Pioneers Carve a Home in Isr ael

In Northern Israel, pioneers are at work carving a home out of the deserted lands of Galilee. Settlements are springing up, like this one to be called Beth Haaravah. It is named after a previous settlement which was destroyed by the Arabs. Thirty-five veterans of the old Beth Haaravah and 90 Jews from the United States and Canada make up the population. (Photos by NEA Acme staff correspondent E. F. Ilani.)

FOOD: While the men are outside building homes, the women prepare food. In front is a Czech girl who survived the first Beth Haaravah.

HOPE: Hope for a good future shows in the faces of these two, Dov Chetner from Calgary, Alberta, and Irene Springman, from Winnipeg.

Ninety Jews from the United States and Canada are part of its populati on. First step is the erecting of wooden houses. In the background are the Galilee Mountains. While carving a home in Northern Israel, Jewish settlers still find time to play. This dance, at the new settlement of Beth Haaravah, lasted all night. Some of the newcomers, from the United States and Canada, sang American cowboy ballads, while the old-timers sang Hebrew songs. (Photo by NEA-Acme staff correspondent E. P. Ilani.)
